NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

STATE CHAMPIONS • ACC CHAMPIONS • COTTON BOWL CHAMPIONS

Clemson posted an undefeated 15-0 record, becoming the first team to accomplish the feat since Penn in 1897. The Tigers won each of their final 10 games by 20+ points.

Clemson finished its sixth undefeated season (1900, 1906, 1948, 1950, 1981, 2018) and fourth perfect season (1900, 1948, 1981, 2018) in school history.

Clemson had a 15-0 record against a schedule that included a school-record 12 games against teams that finished with winning records.

Clemson's roster included 26 members who had already earned degrees before the game was played, including two with master's degrees.

Clemson's ACC success has not been a roller-coaster ride of lofty heights and deep lows. The last time Clemson finished a season below .500 in regular season conference play was in 1998. Clemson's 25-year streak of being .500 or better in conference play is tied for the longest active streak in the country and tied for the fourth-longest of any streak since 1966.

Note: Power conference schools (1992-23).

In 2020, Clemson and Oklahoma's six-year streaks of outright titles made the two programs the first among current power conference programs to win at least six straight outright titles since Oklahoma (12 from 1948-59) as part of the now-dissolved Big 8 Conference.

Including titles from its days as a member of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association and Southern Conference, Clemson has 27 conference championships overall, also the most of any current ACC school and the 11th most among all active FBS programs.

As a counterpoint to conjecture that Clemson's in-conference success is limited to its membership in the ACC, Clemson is 14-6 against the SEC since 2015, a winning percentage that would have ranked third among the SEC's 14 members in that span.

SIGN & DEVELOP

While proud of his incoming classes, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has long stated that a true ranking of a recruiting class cannot and should not be published until four years later when the group can be evaluated on performance rather than potential.

Much to Swinney's delight, The Athletic has annually assumed that role in recent years, re-ranking every recruiting class four years later to account for on-field performance.

For its re-rankings, The Athletic uses the following grading scale: 5 points: All-American, award winner,

THE CLEMSON FOOTBALL STANDARD

CLEMSON CONTINUES TO BE A MODEL IN THE CLASSROOM AND ON THE FIELD UNDER HEAD COACH DABO SWINNEY.

top-50 NFL Draft pick; 4: Multi-year starter, all-conference honors; 3: One-year starter or key reserve; 2: Career backup; 0: Minor or no contribution, left the program. The outlet also adds a bonus to each program's class average, derived from its total number of wins from 2017 through 2020 (e.g.: For re-ranking the Class of 2017, Clemson won 51 games, so its class average received a bonus of 0.51).

Even in its current stretch of recruiting success, Swinney has pointed out that Clemson often falls in rankings as its commitment to not oversigning leads to smaller recruiting classes, as well as noting that much of Clemson's on-field success is a function of the program's development, citing All-Americans like former three-star Isaiah Simmons or former two-star Nolan Turner. The re-rankings illustrate Clemson's impressive track record of talent identification, culture fit, resource allocation and player development.

Note: Initial rank according to 247 Composite

On average, Clemson ranked 10.2 in the 247 Composite team rankings across the 2014-20 recruiting cycles. Upon re-ranking those groups, despite having little room for improvement while recruiting at a Top 15 clip in that span, Clemson ranked 4.0 on average in the re-rankings, a ratings bump of roughly six spots. Each of those Clemson classes averaged at least 10 wins a season during their careers.

HOME SWEET HOME

Clemson produced an ACC-record 40-game winning streak in games played at Memorial Stadium from 2016-22, breaking the conference record of 37 set by Florida State under Bobby Bowden from 1992-2001. Clemson's 40-game home winning streak in that span was one of only 15 home winning streaks of 35 games or more in FBS history.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

- Through the spring of 2024, of 378 players who completed their athletic eligibility at Clemson and/or graduated early in Dabo Swinney's 15 full years as head coach, 372 (98 percent) have earned a degree during their time at Clemson.
- Clemson broke program multi-year APR records in three straight years from 2017-19 (987 in 2016-17, 992 in 2017-18 and 993 in 2018-19) before the NCAA suspended APR reporting during the COVID-19 pandemic. Upon reinstatement of APR reporting in June 2022, Clemson shattered its multi-year APR record with a 999 covering the 2017-18 through 2020-21 academic years.
- Most recently, Clemson posted a 995 multi-year APR covering 2019-20 through 2022-23, fifth-best in the FBS. Clemson's lofty academic success in that period coincided with on-field excellence that included three ACC titles, two CFP berths and a national championship game berth.

- Clemson, Air Force and Northwestern are the only FBS programs to produce a 990+ multi-year APR in each of the last five reported cycles.
- Clemson is the only program in the country to finish among the Top 25 in APR rate among FBS schools and the AP Top 25 in each of the last 13 years.
- Prior to the suspension of APR Public Recognition Awards during the COVID-19 pandemic, the NCAA recognized Clemson with its annual honor, which is bestowed upon programs ranking in the Top 10 percent of their respective sports, for nine of the award's last 10 reported academic cycles. Only 37 of the 130 FBS programs earned at least one APR recognition across the 2009-10 through 2018-19 academic years. Only 30 of programs earned it multiple times. Clemson, Duke and Northwestern were the only ones to earn the award 9+ times in that 10-year span.
- With its award for the 2018-19 academic year, Clemson became the only FBS program since the NCAA created the APR metric in 2003 to win a national championship and an APR Public Recognition Award in the same year multiple times.
- In 2018, in addition to becoming major college football's first 15-0 team since 1897, Clemson had a then-program-record 66 student-athletes with a 3.0+ GPA. Clemson's roster featured 26 graduates, the most of any bowl team.
- That year, Christian Wilkins became Clemson's first William V. Campbell Trophy winner, collecting the award known colloquially as the "Academic Heisman Trophy." He became the fifth player in the award's history, and the first in the College Football Playoff era, to earn the honor and a national title in the same season, joining Alabama's Barrett Jones (2012), Miami's Joaquin Gonzales (2001), Florida's Danny Wuerffel (1996) and Nebraska's Rob Zatechka (1994).
- Chad Carson and Kyle Young were first-team Academic All-Americans in the 2000 and 2001 seasons. Clemson was the only Division I school in the nation with two first-team picks each year. Young was a first-team Academic All-American from 1999-01 and became just the second ACC player in history to be a three-time, first-team selection.
- Dalton Freeman was a 2012 All-American on and off the field. He was a first-team All-American by AFCA and second-team Academic All-American by CoSIDA.
- In 2023, Will Shipley became the first Tiger scholarship player on record to graduate in three years with a 4.0 GPA. The two-time Academic All-American was believed to be the first FBS player with 4,000 all-purpose yards and graduate with a 4.0 in three years.

BOWL HISTORY

- Clemson enters 2024 having earned a bowl berth in each of the last 19 seasons, the longest streak in the ACC and the fifth-longest streak in the nation. The 19-year streak more than doubles the second-longest streak in school history (seven from 1985-91).
- Clemson's 27 all-time bowl wins are the 10th-most in college football history.
- Clemson won a bowl game every year from 2012-16 against a program led by a head coach who won a national title at some point in his career. That includes two in 2016, when the Tigers beat Urban Meyer (Ohio State) and Nick Saban (Alabama). Clemson added an additional win over Saban's Alabama squad in 2018.
- Fourteen of Clemson's 27 bowl wins have come against coaches who have won the FBS National Championship at some point in their careers. That includes wins over Les Miles (LSU) in 2012, Urban Meyer (Ohio State) in 2013 and 2016, Bob Stoops (Oklahoma) in 2014 and 2015, and Nick Saban in 2016 and 2018. A 15th win can be claimed with that figure when including national championships at all levels, as Clemson defeated then-Notre Dame Head Coach Brian Kelly, who won two Division II titles at Grand Valley State, in the 2018 Cotton Bowl.
- Clemson's first bowl game was a 6-3 victory over Boston College and Head Coach Frank Leahy in the 1940 Cotton Bowl.
- Clemson is 8-2 in its history in bowl games against Nebraska, Ohio State and Oklahoma, three of the top-eight programs in college football history in terms of wins. Clemson is the only program to have beaten Oklahoma three times in bowl play and is one of only three schools with multiple bowl victories over the Sooners to its credit. The Tigers are 4-1 vs. Ohio State and 1-1 vs. Nebraska. Including a 1-0 bowl mark against Notre Dame, 1-0 record against Penn State and 2-2 record against Alabama, Clemson is 12-4 in bowls all-time against the eight winningest programs in major college football history.
- Between both bowl games and conference championship games, Clemson has won at least one postseason game in 13 straight years, the longest streak in FBS history.
- Hall of Fame Head Coach Woody Hayes suffered his final defeat against the Tigers in the 1978 Gator Bowl. Overall, Clemson has won 11 bowl games against head coaches who are enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame (Frank Leahy, Don Faurot, Andy Gustafson, Woody Hayes, Tom Osborne, Joe Paterno, Barry Switzer, Don Nehlen, Phillip Fulmer and two against Bob Stoops).

CHAMPIONSHIP TRADITION

- The Tigers were named national champions by every service in 1981, 2016 and 2018. In 1981, Clemson was the only school in the nation with a perfect record (12-0). It included three wins over top-10 teams (Georgia, Nebraska, North Carolina), the only team to beat three top-10 teams in 1981.
- The 1981 team had five All-Americans, including first-team selections Jeff Davis, Terry Kinard and Perry Tuttle. Thirty-one players on the 1981 squad were eventually drafted by the NFL and 22 players eventually played in the NFL. Twenty-three different players on the 1981 roster were First-Team All-ACC selections at one time during their Clemson careers.
- Clemson won its second national title in 2016 with a 14-1 record. The Tigers played the nation's toughest schedule that year, beating six teams that finished in the top 25 of the AP poll. Eleven Clemson opponents that year finished with a winning record. The Tigers defeated No. 3 Louisville, No. 2 Ohio State and No. 1 Alabama over the course of the season.
- Clemson earned its third national title in 2018 by becoming the first major college team to post a 15-0 record since Penn in 1897. Clemson won its final 10 games of the season by 20+ points and defeated No. 3 Notre Dame and No. 1 Alabama in the College Football Playoff by a combined score of 74-19.

- Clemson won or was co-champions of the ACC Atlantic Division nine times in 12 years (2009,11,12,15,16,17,18,19,22) and earned a title game berth in a division-less season in 2020.
- Clemson won the 2011, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019, 2020 and 2022 ACC championships under Dabo Swinney. Clemson is 71-9 against ACC opponents since 2015.
- From 2015-20, Clemson became the first team in ACC history to win six consecutive outright conference titles (2015-20). Clemson and Oklahoma's six-year streaks of outright conference titles those years made the two programs the first among current power conference programs to win at least six straight outright titles since Oklahoma (12 from 1948-59).
- Every Clemson signing class under Swinney except for the 2023 class and incoming 2024 class has at least one ACC title to its credit in their tenures at Clemson, and every signing class from 2012-20 earned at least one College Football Playoff berth.

COACHING SUCCESS

- Dabo Swinney has a 170-43 record in 16 seasons as head coach, passing Frank Howard (166) to become Clemson's all-time winningest coach.
- His 161 victories from 2008-22 trailed only Urban Meyer (165) for the most wins through the first 15 seasons of a head coaching career in FBS history.
- Swinney earned his 150th career win in only his 186th career game as head coach. He became the sixth-fastest coach in FBS history to 150 wins, trailing only Urban Meyer (176), Gil Dobie (180), Barry Switzer (180), Fielding Yost (184) and Joe Paterno (184). Swinney became the fourth fastest to 150 wins in the modern era.
- Swinney won 12 coach-of-the-year honors in the 2015 season, two ACC and 10 for national coach of the year. That included national coach of the year by Associated Press, ESPN, Sporting News, Walter Camp Foundation and the American Football Coaches Association. He also won the Bear Bryant Award in 2015, 2016 and 2018, becoming the first three-time winner in the award's history. Swinney also won the Gene Stallings Award and FCA Coach of the Year in 2014 and the Bobby Dodd Award in 2011. Swinney was inducted into the state of Alabama Hall of Fame in 2018 and was selected as honorary coach of the AFCA Good Works Team in 2019.
- A Clemson assistant coach was a Frank Broyles Award finalist in four straight years from 2015-18 and won the award in back-to-back years. Brent Venables was a finalist in 2015 and won the award in 2016. Tony Elliott won the award in 2017. Jeff Scott was a finalist in 2018 (and semifinalist in 2019). The wins by Venables and Elliott in 2016-17 represented the first time two different coaches from the same school won the award in consecutive years. Clemson hired 2022 Broyles Award winner Garrett Riley in 2023.
- Four former Tiger coaches (John Heisman, Frank Howard, Jess Neely and Danny Ford) are in the College Football Hall of Fame. Howard was Clemson's coach when the ACC was founded and promptly took the Tigers to six ACC titles. Howard and Swinney are tied for the school record for conference titles (eight each).
- Howard ended his career with 165 victories, and his 30-year tenure is still fifth-longest in NCAA history for a head coach serving at one school. His victory total was extraordinary considering Clemson played just 38 percent of its games at home during Howard's tenure.
- Danny Ford coached Clemson to the 1981 national championship and won six bowl games in his Tiger career. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in December 2017. He was the consensus national coach of the year in 1981, and he remains the youngest coach (33) to win a national title. He was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor in 2013.

EXPOSURE

- Clemson games account for four of the nine most-watched college football games since 2018.
- Clemson played in the most-watched game of five of six seasons from 2015-20, including when its 2020 semifinal game against Ohio State outdrew the national championship.
- Even as the industry transitions toward streaming, 124 of Clemson's last 126 games in the last nine years have aired on linear television.
- Clemson has played in the featured contest on ESPN's College GameDay 30 times, including 22 times since the start of the 2015 season. Clemson is 17-5 in those contests.
- In 2022, Clemson became the first program since the 2015 Oklahoma Sooners to appear in the ABC prime-time television window in three consecutive weeks.
- The interest in watching Clemson play hasn't been limited to television broadcasts. Clemson continues to provide one of the great in-venue experiences in all of sports, as Clemson enters 2024 having been ranked in the Top 20 in the nation average home attendance at Memorial Stadium for 43 straight seasons and has led the ACC in average home attendance each of the last 14 years. In 2024, Clemson led the nation in attendance per capita, as its 81,334 average attendance at Death Valley was equivalent to 452 percent of the city's population.
- The first game on ACC Network was Clemson vs. Georgia Tech from Death Valley on Aug. 29, 2019.

HALL OF FAME

- Eight members of Clemson's program have been enshrined in the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame, including four coaches and four student-athletes.
- Clemson's Hall of Fame tradition began with John Heisman, who coached Clemson from 1900-03 and was Clemson's first inductee as part of the Class of 1954. Clemson coach and administrator Jess Neely was inducted in 1971. Frank Howard, Clemson's all-time winningest coach, followed with induction in 1989. Danny Ford, who led Clemson to the 1981 national championship at the age of 33, entered the Hall in 2017.
- Multi-sport legend Banks McFadden was the first Clemson player enshrined, earning induction in 1959. Two members of Clemson's 1981 national championship defense, Terry Kinard (2001) and Jeff Davis (2007), went on to earn induction after the turn of the century. The duo made Clemson's 1978 recruiting class the first in ACC history to produce two Hall of Famers.
- Of the roughly 5.71 million individuals who have played college football since Princeton first battled Rutgers on Nov. 6, 1869, only 1,093 players and 233 coaches have been immortalized in the Hall. Selection to it puts these Tiger legends who earned the distinction in the top 0.02 percent of those ever to play or coach college football.

C.J. SPILLER, ONE OF 104 TIGER ALL-AMERICANS IN HISTORY, IS ONE OF 18 FIRST-ROUND NFL DRAFT PICKS UNDER HEAD COACH DABO SWINNEY.

- C.J. Spiller earned induction in the Class of 2021 in his second year of eligibility. Said Dabo Swinney of Spiller's induction: "For him to get in on his second attempt is such a compliment to the respect for his college football career... For me personally, he was my first five-star, my first first-rounder, my first Pro Bowler, and now my first College Football Hall of Famer... It's only fitting that C.J. was the first."
- Clemson had a special night in New York City on Dec. 11, 2001. That evening, Terry Kinard was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame and Kyle Young was a recipient of a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award. Clemson was the only school in the nation with one of each in 2001.

- The 2019 season marked the second straight year in which Clemson captured ACC Player of the Year (Travis Etienne), Offensive Player of the Year (Etienne) and Defensive Player of the Year (Isaiah Simmons). It marked the fifth time that one team swept all three awards since the inception of the offensive and defensive honors in 1993, but it represented the first time a program had accomplished a sweep of the three awards in consecutive years.

- In 2018, Clemson swept honors for ACC Coach of the Year (Dabo Swinney), ACC Player of the Year (Etienne), ACC Offensive Player of the Year (Etienne) and ACC Defensive Player of the Year (Clelin Ferrell), becoming the first school to do so since Maryland in 2001. Expanded to include Trevor Lawrence's selection as Offensive Rookie of the Year, Clemson was the first program to secure all those conference honors since Florida State in 1997.
- Vic Beasley was a two-time first-team All-American and the first Tiger since Bennie Cunningham to be a two-time All-American, Clemson graduate and first-round pick (1976 NFL draft). Christian Wilkins and Clelin Ferrell later accomplished the feat in the 2019 draft, as did Travis Etienne in the 2021 draft.
- Sammy Watkins, who was the No. 4 overall pick of the 2014 NFL Draft, was the first player in Clemson history to be named a first-team All-American by at least one service in three different seasons. Wilkins became the second such player in school history in 2018.
- When Watkins was named a first-team All-American as a first-year freshman in 2011, he followed Georgia's Herschel Walker (1980), San Diego State's Marshall Faulk (1991) and Oklahoma's Adrian Peterson (2004) as the fourth first-year freshman non-kicker in history to earn AP First-Team All-America honors.
- Clemson has had eight players win 11 national position awards since 2010: Da'Quan Bowers (Bronko Nagurski Award and Ted Hendricks Award in 2010); Dwayne Allen (Mackey Award in 2011); Deshaun Watson (Manning Award & Davey O'Brien Award in 2015 and 2016, Archie Griffin Award in 2015, Unitas Award and Chic Harley Award in 2016); Ben Boulware (Jack Lambert Award in 2016); Christian Wilkins (Willis Award in 2017); Trevor Lawrence (Archie Griffin Award in 2018); Clelin Ferrell (Ted Hendricks Award in 2018); and Isaiah Simmons (Butkus Award in 2019).
- Clemson has had at least one All-American 44 of the last 47 years. In Dabo Swinney's 15 full seasons as head coach, he has had at least two All-Americans 14 times and 36 different players have made a first-team All-America squad. Sammy Watkins, Vic Beasley, Deshaun Watson, Clelin Ferrell, Christian Wilkins and Travis Etienne were all multi-time first-team selections.
- Clemson has had at least one First-Team All-ACC player each of the last 47 years, the longest streak in ACC history. Clemson has had at least 10 All-ACC selections in eight of the last nine years. In those nine years, all other ACC teams have produced 10+ selections in a single season a combined seven times.
- Clemson had a conference-leading nine players (Joe Bostic, Jerry Butler, Bennie Cunningham, Jeff Davis, Steve Fuller, Terry Kinard, Michael Dean Perry, William Perry and Anthony Simmons) named to the ACC's 50-Year Anniversary team. All nine were All-Americans during at least one season at Clemson and played in the NFL.
- Terry Kinard was the first Tiger to win a national individual award. He was named 1982 national defensive player of the year by CBS. That year, he was a unanimous first-team All-American, the first unanimous All-American in Clemson football history.

NFL DRAFT PICKS

- Clemson has had at least one first-round draft choice in 10 of the last 12 years. Clemson is one of only five schools with at least one first-round pick in at least 10 of the last 12 drafts, alongside Alabama, Florida, Georgia and Ohio State.

- Dabo Swinney has coached 83 draft picks since becoming Clemson's head coach, most of any active coach in that span. His 18 first-round selections are the most among active coaches in that time frame.
- Clemson is one of only six schools to have produced multiple draft picks in each of the last 22 NFL Drafts (LSU, Michigan, Oklahoma, Ohio State and USC).
- Clemson is one of five schools to have produced five or more selections in at least nine of the last 11 drafts.

- Expanded to include all rounds, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has produced 24 draft picks across his defensive lines and linebackers, the most of any active coach in the country since the 2009 NFL Draft.
- In Dabo Swinney's head coaching tenure, 13 of Clemson's 16 primary defensive end starters and 12 of its 13 primary defensive tackle starters have been drafted or signed into the NFL.
- In the 2019, 2020 and 2021 NFL Drafts, Clemson produced multiple first-round picks in three consecutive drafts for the first time in program history. Clemson and Alabama were the only schools to produce multiple first-round picks in each of those three drafts.
- In 2021, Trevor Lawrence became the program's first No. 1 overall pick, making Clemson the 51st program ever to produce a No. 1 pick. Clemson joined NC State and Florida State as the only ACC programs to have a No. 1 pick while a member of the conference (four other current ACC schools had No. 1 picks prior to joining the conference).
- With Trevor Lawrence and Travis Etienne both being selected by the Jacksonville Jaguars in the first round in 2021, the duo became the first QB/RB duo from a single school ever drafted by the same team in the first round of an NFL Draft in the Common Draft era.
- In 2019, Clemson produced three players selected as defensive linemen from a single school in a single draft for the first time in NFL Draft history. Clemson's entire starting defensive line from 2018 was drafted in the first four rounds in a span of the draft's first 117 picks.

- Clemson's 2018 national championship roster has produced 23 draft picks and 19 undrafted free agent signings. Clemson's 11 defensive starters alone accounted for five first-round picks, a second-round pick, a third-round pick, two fourth-round picks and a college free agent signing.
- Clemson has had at least one player selected in 22 consecutive drafts since 2003, the second-longest streak in school history behind a 24-year streak across the 1951-74 NFL Drafts.

who started on three Super Bowl championship teams with Washington.

- Clemson had five former players under contract with the Kansas City Chiefs and San Francisco 49ers for Super Bowl LVIII, the second-most of any program.
- In 2019, Clemson's three members of the Chiefs' Super Bowl LIV title-winning team represented three of the 46 players (6.5 percent) on Kansas City's active game day roster for the Super Bowl. Clemson's three members of the Super Bowl champions tied for the second-most in school history, matching the 1981 49ers and 1986 Giants. It was Clemson's most members of a Super Bowl championship team since setting a school record for the 1987 NFL season, when Obed Ariri, Dan Benish, Jeff Bostic and K.D. Dunn all contributed to Washington's second Super Bowl championship.
- Grady Jarrett had 3.0 sacks for the Atlanta Falcons against Tom Brady and the Patriots in the Super Bowl LI after the 2016 season.
- Brian Dawkins retired in 2011 as one of the great safeties in the history of the game and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2018. A 1996 Clemson graduate, Dawkins was an All-American on Clemson's 1995 team. He was named to the Pro Bowl nine times in his career, including the 2012 Pro Bowl after his final season.
- Levon Kirkland was named to the NFL All-Decade team (1990s) for his play with the Pittsburgh Steelers. Dawkins was named to the All-Decade team for the 2000s for his play with the Philadelphia Eagles.

NFL LEGACIES

- Brian Dawkins had his No. 20 retired by the Philadelphia Eagles during the 2012 season. Dawkins played 13 seasons for the Eagles and was a seven-time Pro Bowler in his Eagles tenure. He became Clemson's first Pro Football Hall of Famer in August 2018.

- The late Dwight Clark had his No. 87 retired by the San Francisco 49ers after he finished his career in 1987. He was a starter on the 49ers' Super Bowl teams from the 1981 and 1984 seasons. He is most famous for his game-winning catch on a pass from Joe Montana against Dallas in the 1982 NFC Championship Game. Clark was the NFL MVP in the 1982 season, the only former Tiger to win NFL MVP honors.
- Charlie Waters was a three-time Pro Bowl pick with the Cowboys. He played on two Super Bowl teams.
- Waters and Jeff Bostic were both named to ESPN's 40-Man Roster of Greatest Super Bowl players, released prior to Super Bowl XL.
- The Perry brothers (William, Michael Dean) were starters on Clemson's 1984 defense. Both were named to the ACC's 50-Year Anniversary team in 2002. William played on Clemson's 1981 National Championship team as a freshman, then on the Super Bowl champion Bears of 1985. Michael Dean played in six Pro Bowls with Cleveland and Denver, second-most among former Tigers. Both were named ACC Player of the Year during their careers, William in 1984 and Michael Dean in 1987. They are the only brother combination in ACC history that can make that claim.

POLL PRESENCE

- The 2023 season marked the 37th year that Clemson was ranked in the final AP poll. It was the 16th time in the last 19 years – and 13th straight year – that Clemson was ranked in the final poll.

11-game regular season of 1980, the year the Bulldogs won the National Championship.

- No opponent had a carry longer than 26 yards and no opponent had a play over 30 yards. The longest touchdown play against Clemson was 25 yards, on a halfback option pass from Mike Rozier to Anthony Steels (Nebraska) in the Orange Bowl.
- During offseason conditioning in the summer of 1981, Strength Coach George Dostal constructed a simple sign for his strength training facility... "1982 Orange Bowl, Clemson vs. Nebraska."
- The Clemson senior student who was in charge of pep rallies in 1981 was former CBS This Morning anchor Jane Robelot.
- The day after Clemson won at North Carolina, placekicker Donald Igwebuike flew to Maryland, where Clemson's No. 3 soccer team beat Maryland 4-0 to clinch the ACC title. Igwebuike played on two ACC title teams that fall, both of which finished in the top 10 in the nation.

2016 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP SEASON

NOTES

- National champions for the second time in school history and the first time since 1981.
- The Tigers finished with a 14-1 record after defeating previously undefeated and top-ranked Alabama 35-31 in the CFP National Championship Game on Jan. 9. Clemson's 14 wins tied the FBS record for victories in a season. It was the second year both Alabama and Clemson finished with 14-1 records.
- Clemson won the national championship while playing the nation's most difficult schedule according to the NCAA. Tiger opponents were 107-51 (.677) when not playing Clemson.
- Clemson was just the sixth national champion (since 1977) to have played the nation's most difficult schedule the season it won the title.
- Clemson defeated 11 FBS schools that finished the season with a winning record, including five that totaled 10+ wins and six who finished in the top 25 of the AP poll. Those schools were No. 2 Alabama, No. 6 Ohio State, No. 8 Florida State, No. 16 Virginia Tech, No. 21 Louisville and No. 24 Auburn. The six wins over teams that finished in the AP top 25 were the most in school history.
- For the sixth straight year, Clemson finished at least the same in its final poll as its preseason ranking by AP. Clemson was No. 2 in the preseason AP and coaches polls, then finished No. 1.
- Clemson beat top-ranked Alabama to win the national title, the first time Clemson defeated the No. 1 team. In the CFP semifinal, Clemson defeated No. 2 Ohio State 31-0. It marked the first time Clemson beat a No. 2 ranked team. Clemson was 0-9 in history when playing teams ranked in the top two, then defeated both in consecutive games just nine days apart.
- Clemson defeated No. 3 Louisville earlier in the season, giving Clemson wins over the No. 1, No. 2 and No. 3 teams.
- Clemson was never ranked No. 1 until the final poll and had to defeat a team (Alabama) that had been ranked No. 1 in every poll entering the playoff. It marked the first time a team defeated an opponent in the championship game who had been No. 1 in every poll since 2006, when Florida defeated Ohio State to win the national championship. It also happened in 2005, when Texas defeated Southern California, and in 1983, when Miami (Fla.) defeated Nebraska.
- Clemson was the first non-SEC team to beat Auburn and Alabama in the same year since 1990, when Southern Mississippi achieved the distinction.
- Clemson had a 3-0 record against SEC teams, the first time the Tigers defeated three SEC teams in one season.
- Clemson defeated Auburn, Florida State, Ohio State and Alabama, the programs that had combined to win each of the previous seven national championships.

- Clemson tied team records in wins at home (7), on the road (5), away from home (8), in regular-season conference play (8) and against conference opponents (9).

- Clemson completed the four-year span with a 55-4 record, a school and ACC record that tied 2015-18 Alabama for the most wins in a four-year span in FBS history.
- With a victory over South Carolina in November, Clemson reached 100 wins in a decade for the first time in program history.
- Clemson featured five First-Team All-ACC selections and a total of 18 who made first, second or third team, more than any other school and the most in a season in school history.

- Clemson set a school record with 44.3 points per game, ahead of the previous record of 41.0 set in 2012. The Tigers reached 27 points in 15 straight games, a school record.

- Clemson broke the school and ACC record of 7,718 yards of offense, set in 2015, by recording 7,908 yards of offense.
- Clemson posted a school-record 527.2 yards per game, which included a record 15 games with 400 or more yards and a record-tying three 600-yard games. The Tigers set a school record by averaging 7.35 yards per play, shattering the previous record of 6.5 from 2006.
- Clemson led the country in scoring defense (13.1) for the first time in school history.

- Clemson led the nation in sacks and tied for the national lead in tackles for loss (136).
- Clemson won the AFCA Academic Achievement Award for the first time in school history, becoming just the third program to win it and the national championship in the same year since the award began in 1981 (Notre Dame 1988 and Alabama 2017).
- In addition to the on-field success, Clemson produced team records in team GPA and number of players with recording a 3.0 or better GPA (66).

CREDENTIALS

Arrangements for media credentials for Tiger home football games must be made through the Clemson Athletic Communications office. Requests by accredited media members must be made through the online credentialing system (SportsSystems.com/Clemson). Online credential requests for each Clemson home game will open two weeks prior to each game and will close at noon ET on Wednesday prior to each game.

For more information on credential requests for Memorial Stadium, contact Chandler Simpson via email at mcsimp2@clemson.edu.

The Clemson University Athletics Media Credential Policy is available at ClemsonTigers.com/MediaPolicy. The policy details credential eligibility and issuance priority for national and local outlets that cover Clemson football or its opponents on a regular basis. All credential approvals are made on a game-by-game basis independent of previous approvals and/or denials, and credential decisions for each contest are not beholden to prior credentialing precedents. Due to space limitations, credential quantities may be limited to a number lower than the total requested.

All credential requests will be filled on a space-available basis. Non-working spouses, dates, relatives, non-workers and anyone 16 years of age or younger are not permitted in the press box.

Media credential holders in the press box who are not actively covering the game, or credential wearers on the sideline who are not on assignment, will be asked to leave those respective areas. Press box or sideline security will be contacted should the credential wearer not comply. Credentials used in an unauthorized manner will be revoked immediately, and organizations responsible for credentials falling into improper hands will have credentials revoked for the rest of the year or the succeeding year, at the university's discretion.

EMAIL DISTRIBUTION LIST

Notes, stats, stories and other information are emailed out on a weekly basis from the athletic communications office. Media members may contact Brian Hennessy (bhennes@clemson.edu) to be put on the email list.

PARKING

A limited number of parking spaces reserved for the media is available on a game-by-game basis. Requests for media parking passes should be specified with credential requests. Due to space limitations, not all requests will be fulfilled.

Additionally, no motorhomes, campers or oversized vehicles will be permitted in media parking.

PHOTOGRAPHERS & VIDEOGRAPHERS

Clemson follows guidelines established by the NCAA communications committee and ACC regarding sideline control to make certain the sideline is a working media area.

The following guidelines are adhered to:

- 1) Each photographer and runner is required to wear a photo vest.
- 2) Photo vests must be secured at the photographer's credential pickup at media will call outside Game 10 (visitors' tunnel). Both the credential and the photo vest must be worn on the field.
- 3) Prior to kickoff while recruits are present, photographers are not allowed south of the goalpost in the west endzone nor west of the south sideline 50-yard line.
- 4) After kickoff, no photographers are permitted in the bench area nor on the playing field.
- 5) Photo assistants or others holding a "sideline" pass must remain out of the photo area immediately adjacent to the playing field. This will make certain that photographers/videographers have the appropriate working area.
- 6) Tripods are not permitted on the sidelines.
- 7) The areas behind the team benches are considered bench areas and are to be used only for the passage between the north and south sidelines. This area may not be used as a photo zone.

PRESS BOX

The Bob Bradley Press Box is located on the first floor on the south side of Memorial Stadium. All radio and television booths, in addition to the press area, are on the same level. Photographers are encouraged to use the space available at field level, accessible in the visiting tunnel adjacent to the visitor locker room.

2024 OUTLOOK

Clemson enters 2024 riding a five-game winning streak, the nation's third-longest active streak. Clemson's winning streak trails only those by Michigan (15) and Arizona (7), making Clemson the only team in the nation that has both an active winning streak of five-plus games as well as a returning head coach.

Despite the departures of several key contributors, including six NFL Draft picks, Clemson returns a talented and relatively experienced squad.

OFFENSE

By traditional accounting, Clemson returns eight of its 11 primary offensive starters from 2023, with the lone departures being super senior workhorse center Will Putnam, NFL-bound junior running back Will Shipley and junior transfer Beaux Collins. However, Clemson's offense returns 17 players who have started at least one career game for the Tigers as well as 10 of its 11 starters from last year's Gator Bowl.

QUARTERBACKS

Junior quarterback Cade Klubnik enters his second full season as Clemson's starter and his second season under Offensive Coordinator Garrett Riley in 2024 riding the momentum generated from his clutch game-winning drive in last year's Gator Bowl against Kentucky. Klubnik completed 8-of-8 passes for 71 yards on Clemson's final drive of the contest, helping the Tigers overcome an 11-point fourth-quarter deficit and record the last of five fourth-quarter lead changes in a 38-35 win.

This spring offered a major developmental window for redshirt freshman Christopher Vizzina. After seeing limited action in two games as a true freshman, Vizzina received increased reps in Gator Bowl practices last December in preparation for an expanded role in 2024 for the prospect that ranked among the national top 50 overall in the Class of 2023.

Walk-on Trent Pearman, a two-time Gatorade High School Player of the Year in South Carolina, earned plaudits for his performance in Clemson's Spring Game. Veteran backup Paul Tyson has transitioned into a student coaching role for 2024 but has retained one year

RUNNING BACKS

Klubnik was not the only one to enter the spring of 2024 riding the momentum of a strong Gator Bowl finish, as Clemson and Running Backs Coach C.J. Spiller welcomed back senior Phil Mafah following a record-setting performance in Clemson's bowl victory. Mafah's ascension down the stretch in 2023 mirrored Clemson's late charge.

He recorded career highs in rushing attempts (179), rushing yards (965), rushing touchdowns (13), receptions (21) and receiving yards (108) in 13 games with five starts in 2023, and all five of his starts came in Clemson's season-ending five-game winning streak. His hot streak in November and December was bookended by posting 186 yards on a school-record-tying 36 carries in a win against No. 12 Notre Dame and rushing for a Clemson bowl-record four touchdowns against Kentucky.

Mafah's crown as one of Clemson's most punishing runners became contested a few years ago with the addition of Clemson legacy Keith Adams Jr. The powerful back has averaged 5.79 yards per carry in nine game appearances for the Tigers. Clemson redshirted two exciting talents from its 2023 recruiting class last year: Jay Haynes and Jarvis Green. Haynes scored both a rushing touchdown and a receiving touchdown in his Clemson debut and was slated to play a larger role before a series of injuries led him to redshirt; Green spent the majority of the year developing in the wake of a prolific prep career that included 6,000 all-purpose yards and three state titles.

The group added midyear enrollee David Eziumume in January. His senior season of high school was truncated by injury, but he led the state of Georgia in rushing through six games with 1,155 yards, including consecutive games of 205, 268 and 326 rushing yards.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Clemson has made a habit of onboarding and acclimating its first-year receivers quickly in recent years, and 2023 proved no exception for Wide Receivers Coach Tyler Grisham. For the second straight year, a true freshman led Clemson in receptions and receiving yards.

In his first semester on campus, local product Tyler Brown became one of Clemson's most trusted and most dangerous weapons in 2023. The ESPN Freshman All-American recorded 52 receptions for 531 yards and four touchdowns over 13 games with nine starts to lead Clemson in both receptions and receiving yards. He finished second in the ACC, fourth in the Power Five and seventh in the nation in receptions among freshmen.

A year earlier, it was another in-state product — Dutch Fork's Antonio Williams — who burst onto the scene with a Freshman All-America season when he caught 56 passes for 604 yards with four touchdowns in 14 games with 10 starts. Williams posted 22 receptions for 224 yards with two touchdowns in 2023 as lingering injuries limited him to four regular-season games and qualified him for a mid-career redshirt.

If Clemson were to continue its recent history of outstanding debut seasons for its freshman receivers, its 2024 recruiting class produced two exceptional candidates in consensus five-star prospects T.J. Moore and Bryant Wesco Jr. Wesco arrived on campus in January and turned heads in spring ball, while Moore arrived over the summer after a dominant performance during All-American Bowl week.

Expectations remain high for several receivers in third or fourth years in the program who have battled injuries in recent years. Troy Stellato chose Clemson over virtually every program in the country in 2021 but was besieged by injuries for his first two seasons before breaking out with a 38-catch, 321-yard campaign in 2023. Adam Randall was earning the nickname "Baby Julio" for his performance in No. 8 in his first spring at Clemson in 2022, but a torn ACL that spring limited him in his freshman campaign. He caught 22 receptions for 250 yards in 13 games with five starts in 2023. Clemson expected a formidable starting role for Cole Turner in 2023 after his 101-yard performance in the 2022 ACC Championship Game, but a season-ending adductor injury prematurely ended his 2023 season in mid-September.

This offseason provided a key developmental window for three of Clemson's second-year receivers. Ronan Hanafin was initially destined for a redshirt until late September when coaches determined he was too valuable of a special teams contributor to hold. Injuries warranted a redshirt for hybrid receiver/defensive back Misun "Tink" Kelley. Noble Johnson appeared in four games in 2023 while redshirting.

TIGHT ENDS

The productivity of the tight ends surged in Kyle Richardson's first two seasons as Clemson's tight ends coach, as the unit accounted for 131 receptions, 1,409 yards and 17 touchdowns in 2022 and 2023.

Richardson will benefit from the return of senior Jake Briningstool, who put together a record-setting junior campaign in 2023 and enters 2024 in reach of virtually every Clemson career receiving record for a tight end. Briningstool's career year in 2023 included single-game school records for receptions and receiving yards by a tight end in addition to matching the single-season school record for receptions at that position. He enters the 2024 season 35 receptions, 748 yards and eight touchdowns shy of Jordan Leggett's Clemson tight end records in each category.

A season-ending knee injury to since-departed tight end Sage Ennis last November gave Clemson an extended look at two young tight ends during its five-game winning streak. Clemson legacy Josh Sapp enters his redshirt sophomore season after emerging down the stretch, including a touchdown reception against Georgia Tech and a two-point conversion in the Gator Bowl against Kentucky. The coaches love the pass-catching ability of Olsen Patt-Henry, a glimpse of which was evident on a 25-yard catch-and-run in the Gator Bowl.

2024 OUTLOOK

Markus Dixon returns for his second season at Clemson following a redshirt year in 2023, and the group was joined in the summer by athletic freshman Christian Bentancur, who was the first athlete in Illinois high school history to score 2,000 points in basketball and catch 200 passes in football.

OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

Clemson added more than 20 years of coaching experience for this group in December upon the hiring of Matt Luke as the program's offensive line coach. In addition to being a former Power Five head coach, Luke most recently served as the assistant head coach/offensive line coach at Georgia from 2020-21, helping the Bulldogs to a 22-3 record in that span and helping guide Georgia in 2021 to its first national championship in 41 years. The new offensive line leader has the benefit of returning seven different offensive linemen with at least three career starts for Clemson.

The right side of Clemson's offensive line is expected to be anchored by 2023 All-ACC selection Blake Miller, who has started all 27 of Clemson's games since he arrived on campus prior to the 2022 season. He and fifth-year senior Walker Parks rank No. 2 and No. 1, respectively, in career snaps from scrimmage among Clemson's current roster. A season ago, Parks was entering his third year as one of Clemson's starters along the offensive line before suffering a season-ending ankle injury in the second game of the season. Senior Marcus Tate is yet another multi-year starter returning off of a season-ending injury, as the three-year starter on the offensive line has played 32 career games with 27 starts despite having each of last two seasons curtailed by November injuries.

One of the silver linings of Clemson shuffling through six different starting offensive line combinations in 13 games last season was the late-season emergence of Harris Sewell, whose insertion into the starting lineup late in the year jumpstarted Clemson's rushing success down the stretch and resulted in Sewell posting a 5-0 record in his five starts as a true freshman. Tristan Leigh and Collin Sadler both made leaps in 2023, as Leigh began to grow into his five-star recruiting bona fides by starting 11 games in his third year in the program, and Sadler followed a redshirt season in 2022 by making five starts across the tackle and guard positions last season. Veteran Trent Howard returns for one more season after a 2023 campaign in which he started three games, including making his first career start in Clemson's season-turning upset of Notre Dame.

The vacated center position was under the microscope in spring ball. In addition to Sewell and Howard being candidates at that spot, opportunity knocks for Ryan Linthicum, a true center now entering his fourth year in the program. It will also be the fourth season for Dietrick Pennington, a physically imposing prospect whom coaches have credited as having all the tools he needs to be successful.

Clemson has a deep freshman group including redshirt freshman Ian Reed and true freshmen Ronan O'Connell, Elijah Thurmon, Mason Wade and Watson Young. All of Clemson's additions on the line were mid-year enrollees, giving Luke his full 2024 arsenal to gel over the offseason.

DEFENSE

From the 2021 Cheez-It Bowl through the 2023 season, Wes Goodwin has called Clemson's defense for 28 games, and in those contests, Clemson has held its opponent under its season average in yards per game 24 times and under its season average in points per game 24 times. Goodwin's units have held opponents 80.6 yards and 8.4 points below their season averages in that span.

DEFENSIVE TACKLES

The departures of Tyler Davis and Ruke Orhorhoro for the NFL account for the loss of 109 combined games, 82 combined starts and five combined All-ACC selections from Clemson's defensive tackle group, but the unit is once again being viewed as one of Clemson's deeper units for the 2024 season. In addition to a sterling track record in recruiting, Associate Head Coach and Defensive Tackles Coach Nick Eason is a perfect 4-for-4 in placing his starting defensive tackles on annual All-ACC squads in his two seasons on Clemson's staff.

Despite playing behind two all-conference standouts, now-sophomore Peter Woods made an immediate impact in his true freshman season in 2023. In 307 snaps, the former five-star recruit earned Freshman All-America recognition from a multitude of outlets. He finished as PFF's highest-graded freshman among interior defensive linemen and ranked among the top 10 in the Power Five among defensive tackles of all classifications. He cross-trained at defensive end in the spring.

With two of its long-time leaders now departed, the veteran voices in the room belong to fifth-year senior DeMonte Capehart, fifth-year Tré Williams and fourth-year senior Payton Page. Williams took a mid-career redshirt in 2023 while rehabbing but has appeared in 30 career games since 2020. Page played a career-high 238 defensive snaps over 13 games in a rotational role in 2023. Capehart became one of Clemson's most physical and most disruptive interior linemen for Clemson's Top 10 defense down the stretch.

The group also features four scholarship players in their first or second years, all of whom have drawn praise from the coaching staff for their potential. Stephiylan Green saw action in two games while redshirting last year, and fellow 2023 signee Vic Burley was slated to avoid a redshirt until knee injuries suffered in camp and in September postponed his Clemson debut to 2024. Clemson added two tackles in its 2024 recruiting class as well: Champ Thompson and Hevin Brown-Shuler. Thompson arrived during bowl practice as a mid-year enrollee, and Brown-Shuler matriculated in the summer.

DEFENSIVE ENDS

In December, Chris Rumph returned to Clemson as its defensive ends coach, bringing more than 25 years of coaching experience, including the last four years at the NFL level and 17 years of Division I experience from 2003-19 with some of the biggest name brands in college football. Rumph coached Clemson's defensive ends from 2006-10 and oversaw the development of All-Americans Gaines Adams and Da'Quan Bowers.

Rumph inherits sophomore T.J. Parker, who was one of three Freshman All-Americans on Clemson's 2023 defense. Parker recorded 41 tackles (12.5 for loss), 5.5 sacks, two pass breakups and a fumble recovery in 13 games with three starts, and his 12.5 tackles for loss broke Myles Murphy's school record for a true freshman. His 12.5 tackles for loss also tied Miami's Ruben Bain Jr. for the most in the nation by a freshman in 2023.

Parker played 457 defensive snaps in 2023. The rest of Clemson's returning defensive ends corps enters 2024 with 397 combined career defensive snaps. The group that will have ample opportunity for expanded impact following the departures of sixth-year seniors Xavier Thomas and Justin Mascoll.

By snap count, the most-veteran member of the group is redshirt sophomore Cade Denhoff. Denhoff recorded 15 tackles in 170 snaps in 2023, including a season-high three tackles in 10 snaps in the Gator Bowl. Redshirt junior Zaire Patterson (Winston-Salem, N.C.) is the group's longest-tenured member.

Clemson has high hopes for the young duo of sophomore A.J. Hoffer and redshirt sophomore Jahiem Lawson. Hoffer played seven games in his debut season at Clemson in 2023. Lawson, the younger brother of former Clemson All-American Shaq Lawson, is entering his third season at Clemson after serving primarily in a spot pass-rushing role in four games a year ago.

The defensive ends group is also home to a couple of intriguing wild cards. Dabo Swinney has often praised the development of redshirt junior Armon Mason, a former walk-on who was poised for a significant role in 2023 until he suffered a season-ending injury amid an impressive fall camp. Additionally, Clemson cross-trained redshirt sophomore Caden Story (Lanett, Ala.), who spent his first two seasons at Clemson at defensive tackle.

Clemson welcomed 6-foot-7 end Darien Mayo from its 2024 recruiting class over the summer.

LINEBACKERS

In his first two full seasons as Defensive Coordinator and Linebackers Coach, Wes Goodwin guided Jeremiah Trotter Jr. to All-America selections in both 2022 and 2023, making Trotter the first Clemson linebacker to earn multiple All-America honors since Keith Adams in 1999 and 2000.

Despite Trotter departing for the next level, Clemson's defense received a huge jolt in early January when All-ACC linebacker Barrett Carter announced his intention to return for his senior year. The versatile linebacker finished 2023 on a high note, earning selection to the AP All-Bowl Team for his three pass breakups, an interception and a fumble recovery that jumpstarted Clemson's comeback. He recorded a take-away on consecutive Kentucky plays from scrimmage amid Clemson's four fourth-quarter takeaways in that contest. Carter is the only active player in the nation with 19 or more tackles for loss, 10+ passes defended, multiple forced fumbles and multiple interceptions over the last two seasons.

Junior Wade Woodaz appeared in all 13 games for Clemson with five starts in 2023, collecting 31 tackles (6.0 for loss), 4.0 sacks, two interceptions (returned a combined 94 yards with one touchdown) and a fumble recovery in his second season with the program. Fellow Tampa native Kobe McCloud made two starts last year in his redshirt freshman campaign, filling in for Carter in a November win against Georgia Tech and for Trotter in the Gator Bowl win against Kentucky.

Clemson returns two second-year linebackers: Jamal Anderson and Dee Crayton. Anderson, the son of the former Atlanta Falcons running back of the same name, was one of six Clemson freshmen to play in all 13 games a season ago. Crayton saw action in five games — four regular season contests and the Gator Bowl — while redshirting. They were joined on campus this spring by five-star midyear enrollee Sammy Brown, a consensus top-30 recruit nationally who earned the 2023 Butkus Award as the nation's top high school linebacker.

The balance of Clemson's scholarship depth arrived over the summer. The additions include C.J. Kubah-Taylor, a high school teammate of fellow 2024 signee Darien Mayo at Maryland's Good Counsel High School, as well as Drew Woodaz, who will play alongside his brother Wade once again.

CORNERBACKS

Assistant Head Coach and Cornerbacks Coach Mike Reed produced his 10th different All-ACC cornerback in 11 seasons at Clemson in 2023, helping morph Nate Wiggins from a rangy and speedy prospect into a first-round NFL draft pick in the 2024 NFL Draft.

All of the sudden, the "old veteran" in the room is junior Jeadyn Lukus, who appeared in 18 games with four starts over his first two seasons while battling various injuries. Lukus' injuries late in the 2023 created opportunity for Shelton Lewis and Avieon Terrell, and the dynamic duo delivered in their true freshman seasons. Lewis notched seven pass breakups and two interceptions, including a 46-yard pick-six, in 13 games with two starts a year ago. Terrell continued in the family lineage established by his brother A.J. by adding six pass breakups and an interception of his own in 13 games with five starts. According to PFF, the duo was targeted in coverage a combined 53 times in 2023, surrendering only 20 receptions and no touchdowns.

Redshirt sophomore Myles Oliver hopes a clean bill of health will allow him to showcase his abilities after knee and shoulder injuries cost him all but two game appearances in his first two seasons on campus. Branden Strozier returns in 2024 as well after playing two early games during his redshirt campaign last year.

Clemson added three scholarship signees at the cornerback position in its 2024 recruiting class. While Ashton Hampton, the son of University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff Head Coach Alonzo Hampton, arrived in the summer, the other two members of the trio, Tavoy Feagin and Corian Gipson, enrolled midyear. Feagin got a head start by participating in bowl practices in a limited capacity in Jacksonville, and Gipson carries the pedigree of being a national top-100 recruit and another product of Clemson's recent recruiting success in Texas.

SAFETIES

Assistant Coach Mickey Conn has produced multiple All-Americans and multiple freshman All-Americans over the last five years, deftly handling rotations and development in helping Clemson rank third in the nation in both scoring defense and total defense in that span.

Clemson's 2024 safety corps lost only one letterman from 2023 in Jalyn Phillips, a 60-game veteran who missed most of November last season with an injury. The veteran voice in the room belongs to super senior R.J. Mickens, an NFL legacy who recorded 144 tackles (7.5 for loss), five interceptions, eight pass breakups and a fumble recovery in 47 career games with 17 starts in his first four seasons. Behind Mickens, the unit's next most-tenured member is Tyler Venables, the son of former Clemson coordinator and current Oklahoma coach Brent Venables. The younger Venables is a 36-game veteran who served as a valuable de-facto student coach for much of 2023 while rehabbing from injury.

Freshman All-American Khalil Barnes returns in 2024 following one of the most impressive debut seasons by a Clemson defensive back in school history a year ago. The versatile defensive back was credited with 41 tackles (5.0 for loss), six pass breakups, a team-high three interceptions, three forced fumbles, a sack and a fumble recovery (which he returned 42 yards for a touchdown) in 499 snaps over 13 games (seven starts), becoming one of three players in the country (and the only freshman) with at least three interceptions, three or more forced fumbles and one sack in 2023.

Barnes' production stands out amid a deep group of talented youth at the position. Kylon Griffin recorded picks in back-to-back games as a redshirt freshman last season. Rob Billings and Kylen Webb both redshirted while making a combined eight appearances in 2023.

Sherrod Covil Jr. was beginning to take hold of an expanded defensive role in 2023 until a torn ACL ended his season in late October. He and the other safeties welcomed three midyear enrollees in January: Noah Dixon, Ricardo Jones and Joe Wilkinson.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Clemson enjoyed one of the most productive punting seasons in Clemson history in 2023 and received good news when Aidan Swanson elected to use his extra year of eligibility from the 2020 COVID-impacted season to return for 2024.

Swanson's career year in 2023 matched him with long-time NFL punter Bradley Pinion's school record for punts downed inside the 20 (28) and represented the fifth-longest single-season punting average in school history (43.67 yards). Swanson averaged 40.0 yards or better on punts in 17 consecutive games across the 2022-23 seasons, breaking Dale Hatcher's school record mark of 12 from 1983-84. Swanson's return could afford redshirt sophomore Jack Smith another year of development as Clemson's second scholarship punter on the roster.

After a season in which Clemson infamously pulled Jonathan Weitz out of retirement to solidify its placekicker position, eyes have been on two scholarship players in that position battle this offseason following Weitz's return to the financial world. Redshirt sophomore Robert Gunn III started the 2023 season as Clemson's kicker and has proven to be one of the nation's foremost kickoff specialists. He continues to battle midyear enrollee Nolan Hauser for placekicking duties. Hauser, the son of two former Clemson student-athletes, holds the national high school record for career field goals and immediately impressed teammates and coaches with his performance in the team's Gator Bowl practices.

Whoever wins the placekicking job will have the benefit of stability in the battery. Redshirt sophomore Clay Swinney is the incumbent at holder on placekicks. He and his brothers Will and Drew have held every Clemson placekick since the start of the 2017 season, a streak that includes 598 total placekicks (159 field goal attempts and 439 PATs).

Long snappers Holden Caspersen and Philip Florenzo both return after the duo has snapped in all of Clemson's 27 games over the last two years. Caspersen, noted for his rotational consistency as it pertains to where the laces land in holders' hands, served as Clemson's snapper on placekicks in 2023. Florenzo, an athlete whom Dabo Swinney called "a weapon" in coverage, served as Clemson's snapper on punts and helped turn Clemson's win against Notre Dame by recovering a muffed punt.

HEAD COACH DABO SWINNEY

DABO SWINNEY

- HEAD COACH
- 16TH FULL SEASON AS HEAD COACH
- 22ND SEASON ON CLEMSON STAFF
- ALABAMA '93

An illustrious coaching heritage is embedded in the foundation of Clemson football. At the dawn of the 20th century, the Tigers were led by future College Football Hall of Famer John Heisman. Hall of Famers Jess Neely, Frank Howard and Danny Ford followed in Heisman's winning tradition.

Now entering his 17th season (and 16th full season) as Clemson's head coach, Dabo Swinney has already carved his name into that foundation, elevating himself amid a pantheon of Tiger greats as both the program's all-time winningest coach and the first in history to lead Clemson to multiple national championships.

Swinney enters the 2024 season as the nation's active leader in winning percentage among head coaches with at least 10 years of experience. His 170 wins are the most of any active coach whose entire head coaching tenure has come at one school, and he has produced 83 NFL Draft picks and 18 first-round picks, both the most of any active coach since his hire.

Swinney's stratospheric start to his head coaching career placed his record not only among Clemson legends but also among the names of the winningest leaders in the 150-plus years of major college football.

Swinney coached the 200th game of his career in the 2022 Orange Bowl, and his 161-39 record through 200 career games positioned him alongside College Football Hall of Famers Bob Stoops and Robert Neyland for the fifth-most wins through 200 games in FBS history. His 161 career wins at the time also passed Stoops for the second-most through the first 15 seasons of a career in FBS annals despite Swinney being limited to only seven games in his first season while serving in an interim capacity.

Swinney surpassed the legendary Howard as Clemson's all-time winningest coach on Nov. 4, 2023, in a 31-23 defeat of No. 12 Notre Dame at Death Valley. The win was the 166th of his career in only his 209th career game. The win sparked Clemson's five-game season-ending winning streak as the Tigers jumped from 4-4 to 9-4 and finished ranked in the AP Top 25 for a 13th consecutive season, tied for the ninth-longest streak in poll history.

Swinney's 2022 squad had an 11-3 record and returned the Tigers to the ACC throne, earning a 39-10 victory in the ACC Championship Game against North Carolina to give the Tigers their seventh ACC title in eight years. Clemson became the first program in an active Power Five conference to win seven outright championships in an eight-year span since Alabama won eight out of nine SEC titles outright from 1971-79. Clemson's 2022 squad extended its streak of consecutive 10-win seasons to 12, the third-longest streak in FBS history.

In 2021, Swinney's final win of the season in the Cheez-It Bowl was his 150th career win in his 186th game as head coach. In terms of games played, Swinney became the sixth-fastest coach in FBS history — and the fourth-fastest in the modern era — to earn 150 career wins, trailing Urban Meyer (176), Gil Dobie (180), Barry Switzer (180), Fielding Yost (184) and Joe Paterno (184). At the conclusion of that season, only 16 coaches in FBS history including Swinney had accomplished the feat within 200 games, and 14 of the 16 were College Football Hall of Fame inductees, with the lone exceptions being Swinney and Meyer, both of whom are not yet eligible.

Though other seasons resulted in more hardware, analysts and observers opined that 2021 might have been his best coaching job, as the Tiger mentor guided his team through adversity and attrition to overcome a 2-2 start to finish 10-3. Clemson entered that October as one of 28 Power Five teams with two or more losses, yet concluded the season as one of only two of those 28 programs to finish the season having reached 10 wins.

In 2021, Swinney's team played seven one-possession games, one shy of the school record, and went 5-2 in those contests. The squad's success came in spite of tremendous turnover and attrition, as 48 different players earned at least one start, eight more than in the pandemic-impacted 2020 season. Only 23 Tigers played in all 13 games, and only four offensive or defensive players started all 13. Between injuries and transfers, he held aloft the 2021 Cheez-It Bowl trophy following a game Clemson finished without the services of 30 scholarship players from its initial fall roster.

A year earlier, Swinney's squad accomplished its "double-double mission" in 2020, going 10-2 in a condensed season to give Clemson 10 consecutive 10-win seasons. Clemson became only the third program in FBS history to accomplish the feat and became the first school to win 10 games in 10 straight seasons as a member of the ACC, as only the final nine of Florida State's record 14-straight 10-win seasons came during the Seminoles' tenure in the ACC.

HEAD COACH DABO SWINNEY

The pandemic-affected 2020 campaign was a historic one for the Tigers both as a team and individually, as quarterback Trevor Lawrence ascended to become the winningest quarterback in school history (34-2) and running back Travis Etienne added the ACC's all-time rushing crown (4,952 yards) to his arsenal of school and conference records. Etienne's versatility as a rusher and receiver earned him consensus All-American honors as an all-purpose selection, while Lawrence became the second Heisman Trophy finalist in program history, tying Deshaun Watson (second in 2016) for the highest finish in Heisman Trophy voting in school history.

The prolific backfield duo under Swinney's tutelage helped guide Clemson to its sixth consecutive outright conference title with a 34-10 win against Notre Dame in the ACC Championship Game. That day, Clemson and Oklahoma's six-year streaks of outright conference titles made the two programs the first among current Power Five programs to win at least six straight outright titles since Oklahoma (12 from 1948-59) as part of the now-dissolved Big 8 Conference.

The conference title helped Clemson secure its sixth College Football Playoff berth, becoming the first program ever to reach the postseason tournament in six consecutive seasons. Clemson is 6-4 all-time in College Football Playoff games, the second-most wins of any program since the format's inception.

Clemson finished 2020 as the nation's No. 3-ranked squad, the Tigers' sixth consecutive top-four finish in the AP poll. In doing so, Swinney joined Bobby Bowden (13), Pete Carroll (7) and Bud Wilkinson (6) as the only coaches since the AP Poll's inception in 1936 to record six consecutive top-four finishes. In that stretch, Clemson appeared in the top five of 57 consecutive AP Polls, the second-longest streak in poll history.

Clemson entered the third decade of the 21st century in 2020 after Swinney helped author one of the most prolific 10-year periods in the history of the sport. Clemson posted a 117-22 record under Swinney's leadership in the 2010s, and the program's 117 wins trailed only Penn (124 in the 1890s) and Alabama (124 in the 2010s) to tie for the third-most in a decade in major college football since 1890. Clemson's 117 wins in the 2010s represented the first 100-win decade in Clemson history.

Before a pandemic-shortened season in 2020, Clemson won at least 12 games in five straight seasons from 2015-19, tied for the longest such streak in the modern era and only two seasons shy of Penn's record seven-season streak from 1892-98. Clemson won 69 games in that five-year span, the most in a five-year stretch in the AP Poll era.

In 2019, the Tigers earned their fifth-consecutive CFP berth following their fifth-consecutive ACC title, becoming the first team in college football history to win five straight conference championship games since conference title games were created in 1992.

Clemson posted a 14-1 record that year, earning its fourth appearance in the College Football Playoff National Championship Game in five years. Prior to the season finale, Clemson extended its school-record winning streak to 29 games, tied with Florida State (2012-14) for the longest streak in ACC history and for the 12th-longest in FBS history.

Clemson dominated the vast majority of its 2019 opponents, including an eight-game streak of wins by 30 or more points to break the longest streak in the AP Poll era, surpassing the previous mark of seven games set by 2011 Houston and 1976 Michigan.

Clemson also produced the 2018 William V. Campbell Trophy winner (known colloquially as the "Academic Heisman") in Christian Wilkins and won the program's first AFCA Academic Achievement Award. Clemson repeated as AFCA Academic Achievement Award recipients in 2019, becoming the only school in the country to repeat and doing so while appearing in the national championship game in both seasons.

Swinney and Clemson's 2018 season was one for which statistics and superlatives accumulated in historic fashion. The Tigers became the first major college football team in the modern era (and the first since Penn in 1897) to finish a season with a 15-0 record.

The list of "firsts" was long and distinguished. Clemson became the first program to win four consecutive Atlantic Division titles, and with a 42-10 win against Pittsburgh in the ACC Championship Game, it became the first program to win four straight ACC titles outright.

Clemson's 15 wins included a school-record 12 against teams who finished with winning records. Clemson won by an average margin of 31.1 points per game, the best in the nation and the second-largest in school history, trailing only a 35.3-point average margin in 1900. Among the seasons it passed was a 30.4-point average margin in 1901, a season in which Clemson won one of its five games by a score of 122-0.

Clemson set school records in points (664) and total offense (7,718, also an ACC record). The defense held opponents to 13.1 points per game, leading the country in scoring defense for the first time in school history.

A critical point in the season came four games into the campaign. Following a 49-21 win at Georgia Tech in which true freshman quarterback Trevor Lawrence threw for four touchdowns in reserve, Swinney and the coaching staff elected to name Lawrence the starter, supplanting senior Kelly Bryant, who had led the Tigers to a 16-2 career record as a starter.

With Lawrence leading Swinney's Tigers, Clemson took flight. After a dramatic come-from-behind 27-23 win against Syracuse in which Lawrence exited the game with an injury, Clemson rattled off 10 consecutive wins of 20 points or more to conclude the season, including blowout wins of No. 3 Notre Dame in the Cotton Bowl and No. 1 Alabama in the College Football Playoff National Championship.

Seven players earned first or second-team All-America honors, including a school-record three players who collected consensus honors. The 2018 Tigers produced a team-record 18 All-ACC selections and became the first team to produce the ACC Player of the Year, ACC Offensive Player of the Year, ACC Defensive Player of the Year, ACC Offensive Rookie of the Year and ACC Coach of the Year in a season since Florida State in 1997.

HEAD COACH DABO SWINNEY

Accolades also accumulated for Swinney, who earned his second career ACC Coach-of-the-Year honor and brought home the Woody Hayes Award as national coach of the year. Less than a week after winning the national title, he also won the Paul "Bear" Bryant Award, becoming the first three-time winner of the award. Including the 2018 Bryant and Hayes Awards, he has won national coach-of-the-year honors from at least one organization in five of the last 10 years.

The 2018 season was preceded by a 2017 campaign in which Clemson was on a mission to prove that it was built to last. Swinney guided the team to a 12-2 record, an ACC title and a College Football Playoff berth despite having only six scholarship seniors and losing players who accounted for 77 percent of the offense during the 2016 national championship season.

While Clemson was ranked No. 5 in the preseason AP Poll, few expected the Tigers to be ranked No. 1 in both polls and the College Football Playoff ranking entering the bowl season. In fact, Clemson was not even the preseason choice to win the ACC Atlantic Division.

Despite a setback in the Sugar Bowl to eventual national champion Alabama, Clemson finished ranked No. 4 in both polls. Swinney was inducted into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame following the season.

The Tiger-record six wins over top-25 teams in 2017, also a national best, included a school-record four on opponents' home fields and five away from home. The defense, including three defensive linemen, featured four All-Americans, helping Clemson finish in the top four in the nation in scoring defense (No. 2) and total defense (No. 4). Clemson led the ACC in the four major defensive categories (scoring, total, rushing, passing), a first in conference history.

The 2016 Tigers lived up to their hype after compiling a 14-1 record and earning a spot in the College Football Playoff for the second-straight year. Along the way, Clemson knocked off five top-25 foes.

Clemson defeated the top two teams in the national polls in consecutive games in the College Football Playoff at the end of the season. The Tigers blanked Ohio State, 31-0, in the Fiesta Bowl, the first shutout suffered by head coach Urban Meyer in his career and the first for Ohio State since 1993.

The Tigers then earned a rematch with No. 1 Alabama, and for the first time in school history, took down the top-ranked team in a second epic battle with the storied Crimson Tide program. Quarterback Deshaun Watson's touchdown pass to Hunter Renfrow with one second left on the clock gave Clemson a dramatic 35-31 national championship victory in Tampa, Fla. Swinney received the Bear Bryant Award as national coach-of-the-year for the second consecutive season.

Swinney coached Watson to two record-setting seasons (2015,16). The two-time Heisman Trophy finalist became the first FBS player to total 4,000 passing yards and 1,000 rushing yards in a season in 2015, and he followed by setting an ACC record with 41 passing touchdowns in 2016. Watson won the Davey O'Brien Award and Manning Award in back-to-back years.

Swinney guided Clemson to the No. 1 national ranking in every College Football Playoff poll in 2015 and led the Tigers to their first national championship game appearance under the new format after his team defeated Oklahoma, 37-17, in the 2015 Orange Bowl. The Tigers led Alabama in the fourth quarter of the championship contest, but came up just short (45-40) in an epic game in Glendale, Ariz.

Following the team's 14-1 record and No. 2 final ranking, he was the recipient of 10 national and two ACC Coach-of-the-Year honors.

In 2015, a then-Tiger-record 17 players were named to one of three All-ACC teams, including all five starting offensive linemen for the first time in school history. In 2016, 15 players were honored, including a school-record three first-team All-ACC offensive line selections.

The 2012, 2013 and 2014 seasons were also noteworthy, with three top-15 final rankings.

With a 40-6 Russell Athletic Bowl win over Oklahoma in 2014, Swinney became the first coach to win three bowl games in consecutive seasons over teams whose head coaches had previously won the national title. He upped that mark to five years in a row in 2016.

Clemson capped off the 2013 season with a thrilling 40-35 victory over No. 6 Ohio State in the Orange Bowl. Clemson had an 11-2 record after finishing 7-1 in ACC regular-season games. It marked Clemson's first back-to-back 11-win seasons in school history. For the fourth time in his first five full seasons as head coach, Swinney was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual National Coach of the Year in 2013.

The 2012 season (11-2) gave Clemson back-to-back 10-win seasons for the first time in 22 years. Its seven conference wins in the regular season were then a school record, and Clemson was co-champion of the ACC Atlantic Division.

With Clemson's thrilling 25-24 win over No. 7 LSU in the 2012 Chick-fil-A Bowl, the Tigers finished the season ranked No. 9 in the USA Today poll. It was Clemson's first top-10 finish in one of the two major polls since 1990. Clemson also reached the 11-win mark for the first time since its 1981 national championship season.

Swinney's 2011 squad, which ended the season ranked No. 22 in the nation, captured Clemson's first ACC title since 1991 when it beat No. 3 Virginia Tech, 38-10, in the ACC Championship Game in Charlotte,

HEAD COACH DABO SWINNEY

N.C. It gave Clemson its first 10-win season since 1990. For his efforts, Swinney was named Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year to become the first Tiger head coach to win a national coach-of-the-year award since Ford in 1981.

In 2010, Swinney became just the second Tiger coach to lead Clemson to a bowl game in his first two full years as head coach, joining his predecessor, Tommy Bowden. The 2010 schedule was one of the most challenging in school history, as nine bowl teams were on the regular-season slate and two of the four non-conference opponents were ranked in the top 25.

In Swinney's first full season as head coach at Clemson in 2009, he led the Tigers to their first ACC Atlantic Division championship. The Tigers came just six points short of winning their first ACC title in 18 years. Swinney was named ACC Coach of the Year by Sporting News and was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year.

In October 2008, Swinney was named Clemson's interim head coach, replacing Bowden, who had been his position coach as a player at Alabama and was Clemson's head coach since 1999. He led the Tigers to a 4-2 record during the rest of the 2008 regular season, including a win over South Carolina in the regular-season finale to earn a Gator Bowl bid against Nebraska.

On Dec. 1, 2008, his interim tag was removed and he was named the program's head coach. At the time, there had been 28 interim head coaches at the FBS level since 1970, and those coaches had combined for a 26-86-2 record. Only one of those 28 interim coaches posted a winning record, and that was Swinney. When he was hired as head coach, he became just the second interim coach to be elevated to the head coach position at the same school during that time period.

Swinney hit the ground running in his first week as interim head coach, as he prepared for a 5-1 Georgia Tech team. He had to reorganize his staff and regroup his team and the fanbase in just five days. While the Tigers lost by four points, he accomplished many goals in that first week through his outstanding leadership. One of the most impressive demonstrations of unity came during the team's "Tiger Walk," which has since become a staple of Clemson's game day routine for both the team and fans.

With an initial hire date of Oct. 13, 2008, Swinney is the senior member of ACC head coaches and enters the 2024 season as the fifth-longest-tenured head coach in the FBS. He is one of three active coaches with an FBS national championship to his credit (Mack Brown and Kirby Smart) and one of only two with multiple national championships at college football's highest level (Smart).

Clemson's success on the gridiron has been matched by its prowess in the classroom, as prior to the NCAA suspending APR reporting during the COVID-19 pandemic, Clemson was one of only three programs to earn top-10 percent APR recognition from the NCAA in at least nine of the previous 10 years, joining Duke and Northwestern. Clemson's 99 percent mark in the NCAA Graduation Success Rate's metric released in 2023 for the 2016 cohort was the highest ever recorded among public Power Five football programs in the 19 years the NCAA has tracked the metric.

Swinney has demonstrated his dedication to the community through Dabo's All In Team Foundation. Since 2009, the Swinney family and Dabo's All In Team Foundation have given more than $11.1 million back to communities and programs in the state. In its inaugural year, the foundation made the first contribution to the cancer fund established for former Boston College linebacker Mark Herzlich, and many schools followed its lead during the remainder of the season.

In 2023, the foundation distributed roughly $1.7 million in financial support to its core focus areas, with $1.18 million of that total being distributed to roughly 275 deserving organizations and non-profits through the foundation's grant program. In total, the foundation's grant program has issued more than $7.38 million to worthy applicants since its inception.

Swinney was named as the honorary coach for the 2019 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team, an honor for which Watson, a former Good Works Team selection, returned to Clemson to surprise Swinney during a team meeting. In the spring of 2021, Swinney accepted the Uncommon Award from Pro Football Hall of Fame Coach Tony Dungy, who presents the honor annually to figures in football who "take the tough road, follow a higher calling and set a higher standard."

The 1993 Alabama graduate joined the Clemson staff prior to the 2003 season. In his first 21 years as an assistant or head coach, the Tigers finished in the top 25 of the polls 17 times and totaled 48 wins over top-25 teams.

Swinney coached his wide receiver position to a level of consistency that had not been seen previously at Clemson. He had a wideout finish first or second in the ACC in catches in five of his six seasons as an assistant coach. In his first season, he had three of the top-10 receivers in the conference, a first in Tiger history.

In his 21 seasons at Clemson, a Tiger wide receiver has earned All-ACC status in 17 of those campaigns, including a first- or second-team All-ACC selection (Derrick Hamilton, Airese Currie, Chansi Stuckey, Aaron Kelly, Jacoby Ford, Sammy Watkins, DeAndre Hopkins, Artavis Scott, Mike Williams, Tee Higgins, Amari Rodgers) in 16 of those 20 seasons. In 2021, three of his protégés (Williams, Higgins and Hunter Renfrow) recorded 1,000-yard seasons in the NFL, while another (Chansi Stuckey) has gone on to serve as wide receivers coach at multiple Power Five programs.

The Alabama native has a reputation as one of the top recruiters in the nation. In 2006, he was listed as the No. 5 recruiter in the nation by Rivals. He signed 38 players in his five recruiting seasons as an assistant coach and was a major reason Clemson's 2008 recruiting class was rated No. 2 in the nation by ESPN when he signed 11 players. Clemson's 2020 class finished as a consensus Top 3 class, earning the top ranking from ESPN, a No. 2 rank by Rivals and a No. 3 ranking in the 247 Composite.

When Swinney accepted the interim head coaching position at Clemson on Oct. 13, 2008, he described his feelings as "bittersweet" because he was taking over for Bowden, who had been his first position coach at Alabama in the 1989 season. He had also brought Swinney back to the coaching profession in 2003 and has had a profound effect on his life. Both had followed similar paths as players; Bowden was a walk-on at West Virginia, and Swinney was a walk-on at Alabama.

Swinney received his bachelor's degree in commerce & business administration from Alabama in 1993 after lettering three times (1990-92). A walk-on who went on to earn a scholarship, Swinney was a wide receiver on Alabama's 1992 national championship team. He was also named Academic All-SEC along with being an SEC Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll member in 1990 and 1992.

Along with his appearance in the 1993 Sugar Bowl, his Alabama teams played in the 1990 Sugar Bowl, 1991 Fiesta Bowl and 1991 Blockbuster Bowl. Both Sugar Bowls came after winning the SEC title game.

After his playing career, he was a graduate assistant at Alabama from 1993-95. He received a master's degree in business administration from Alabama in 1995.

He became a full-time assistant coach at Alabama in February 1996 under head coach Gene Stallings and coached a total of five seasons there on a full-time basis. Swinney was assigned to coach the Crimson Tide's wide receivers and tight ends in 1996, a season that saw Alabama win the SEC West Division title. The following year, he solely coached the tight ends.

In 1998, he coached Alabama's wide receivers, a position he held for three years. At the end of 1999, Swinney coached the Crimson Tide in the 2000 Orange Bowl after winning the SEC Championship Game.

During his time at Alabama, Swinney was a part of six teams with double-digit wins, five top-10 finishes, one national title (1992), three SEC championships (1989, 92, 99) and five SEC West Division titles (1992, 93, 94, 96, 99) as a player and coach.

Swinney married the former Kathleen Bassett in 1994. They have three sons, Will, Drew and Clay. Will played for Clemson from 2017-21, appearing in 69 games and holding for 558 career kicking points while also scoring two touchdowns of his own. Drew was a core special teams player for Clemson from 2018-22 who served as the starting holder in his final campaign and caught 14 career passes. Both Will and Drew earned All-ACC Academic Team selections during their playing careers. Clay is a redshirt sophomore on the 2024 Tiger football team.

- Though entering his third full season in an on-field role at Clemson, 2024 will represent his ninth season on Clemson's staff.

- In his first full season as Clemson's passing game coordinator and tight ends coach in 2022, helped his tight ends group record 67 catches, 748 yards and 10 touchdowns. - Helped Davis Allen post career highs in receptions (39), receiving yards (443) and touchdowns (five) in 2022 en route to third-team All-ACC honors while Jake Briningstool accrued 285 yards and four touchdowns on 25 receptions.

- CLEMSON '09

- Named as Clemson's running backs coach on Feb. 5, 2021.
- Served as an unpaid coaching intern during the 2020 season
- In 2023, helped both Phil Mafah (965) and Will Shipley (827) exceed 800 rushing yards, marking only the ninth time since 1948 that Clemson has produced multiple 750-yard rushers. It marked the first time two Clemson running backs accomplished the feat since 2006, when Spiller himself was part of such a duo with James Davis.
- Clemson was one of only six schools in 2023 with multiple 800-yard rushers, and Clemson was one of only four to accomplish the feat with multiple running backs rather than one running back and one quarterback.
- In 2022, guided Shipley as he became the first player in ACC history to earn first-team all-conference honors at three different positions (running back, all-purpose and specialist) and be named as one of four finalists for the Paul Hornung Award, given annually to the nation's most versatile player.
- With 15 rushing touchdowns as a sophomore, Shipley joined Clemson's Travis Etienne, Louisville's Lamar Jackson and North Carolina's Giovani Bernard as the only ACC players since 2000 to rush for at least 11 touchdowns in both their freshman and sophomore seasons.
- Also mentored Shipley as the second-year back became Clemson's first Academic All-American since 2012.
- In his first season in an on-field role in 2021, he had two different rushers (Shipley and Kobe Pace) reach 500 rushing yards, giving Clemson multiple 500-yard rushers for the sixth time in a seven-year span.

FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

WOODY McCORVEY

- CHIEF OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION
- 23RD SEASON ON CLEMSON STAFF
- ALABAMA STATE '72

Woody McCorvey has been a significant part of the two greatest eras in Tiger football. In the 1980s he was on the staff of College Football Hall of Famer Danny Ford and helped Clemson to a 60-19-3 record, three ACC titles and four bowl wins. He served on Ford's staff for five Clemson teams that finished in the final top 20 of the AP Poll.

Now in his second stint at Clemson, Dabo Swinney would be the first to say how important he has been in contributing to Clemson's recent run of 13 consecutive nine-win seasons.

"He is my national security advisor," said Swinney. "My experience with him dates to my days as a player at Alabama when he was my position coach. He coached at Clemson in the 1980s under Danny Ford and knows all about our winning tradition."

The 2024 season is his 47th in college football as either a coach or an administrator. McCorvey returned to the Clemson program for the 2009 season, Swinney's first full year, and he has helped him bring the Tigers to a level of consistent excellence that culminated in national championships following the 2016 and 2018 seasons.

With Sylvester Croom's induction in 2022, McCorvey has worked for four coaches in the College Football Hall of Fame. He has also been in significant coaching roles with Gene Stallings and Phil Fulmer. He has worked for four national championship coaches: Ford, Fulmer, Stallings and Swinney.

Swinney has a 166-40 record as head coach since McCorvey joined his staff. The Tigers have won eight ACC titles, nine division titles (plus an additional championship berth in a divisionless season in 2020) and posted 12 bowl wins in 15 years.

McCorvey serves as the primary liaison between Swinney and the athletic and IPTAY administrations. He also oversees the management of the football administrative offices and has served as a key point of contact for NFL personnel as Clemson has expanded its pipeline to the pros.

He supervises the football budget and works with the academic staff to oversee that important area. With McCorvey's assistance, Clemson posted the highest NCAA Graduation Success Rate of any public Power Five program in the metric's history in the latest data released in 2023. In 2022, he was named to the NCAA Football Rules Committee.

As a Clemson wide receivers and tight ends coach from 1983-89, he recruited future Pro Bowlers Donnell Woolford and Chester McGlockton. He also coached NFL players Keith Jennings and K.D. Dunn. McCorvey coached at the Division I level for 26 years and went to a bowl game 17 of those seasons. He coached or signed 36 players who went on to a professional football career.

McCORVEY'S COACHING EXPERIENCE

| Year(s) | School                 | Location          |

| 1979-82 | Alabama A&M            | Huntsville, Ala.  |
| 1983-89 | Clemson                | Clemson, S.C.     |

| 1999-04 | Tennessee              | Knoxville, Tenn.  |
| 2004-08 | Mississippi State      | Starkville, Miss. |

From 1990-2008, he coached in the SEC every season, including each of the last five at Mississippi State, where he served as assistant head coach and offensive coordinator in addition to coaching the quarterbacks. He helped Mississippi State win eight games, including wins over Auburn, Alabama and Mississippi, in 2007. He also coached 2010 NFL draft pick Anthony Dixon.

McCorvey coached at Tennessee for five years (1999-03). With him heading the running game, the Volunteers had a 46-14 record. He helped guide Tennessee to the 2000 Fiesta Bowl, 2001 Cotton Bowl, 2002 Citrus Bowl, and 2002 and 2003 Peach Bowls.

Tennessee won three consecutive New Year's Day Bowl games from 2000-02 as well.

Under McCorvey's leadership, Tennessee maintained the school's reputation of having an outstanding rushing attack. The Volunteers led the SEC in rushing in 1999, averaging 191.3 yards per game. His work helped tailback Travis Stephens pace the SEC in rushing yards (1,464) in 2001.

One year prior, McCorvey helped tailback Travis Henry finish second in the league and 14th in the nation in rushing yards (1,314). Another of his protégés was Jamal Lewis, who finished in the top five on the Tennessee career rushing list and was the No. 5 overall pick of the 2000 NFL Draft.

Prior to joining the staff at Tennessee, McCorvey worked one season at South Carolina, where he served as the wide receivers coach in 1998 under former Tiger assistant coach Brad Scott.

McCorvey took the South Carolina job following an eight-year stay at Alabama from 1990-97. He served seven seasons as its wide receivers coach and the 1996 campaign as offensive coordinator. He was the assistant head coach in 1997 as well.

Alabama had five top-25 final rankings in his tenure, including three seasons in the top five. The Crimson Tide won the 1992 national title with McCorvey serving as wide receivers coach and Swinney as one of his student-athletes. That season culminated with a 34-13 win over heavily-favored Miami (Fla.) in the Sugar Bowl. Current Clemson Director of Football Scouting Danny Pearman was also on that staff.

In his first seven years at Alabama, it posted a 70-16-1 record and played in six bowl games. With McCorvey leading the offense in 1996, Alabama finished 10-3, including an Outback Bowl win over Michigan.

Alabama's players flourished under his guidance. As offensive coordinator, running back Shaun Alexander established many school records and later went on to a Pro Bowl career with the Seattle Seahawks. In 1993, David Palmer established school records for catches and receiving yards along with earning first-team All-America honors. Palmer was third in the Heisman Trophy balloting, the highest finish in history for an Alabama player at the time.

From 1979-82, he served as an assistant coach at Alabama A&M and helped that program to the No. 6 rushing offense in Division II in 1981 after finishing 11th in the nation in scoring offense in 1980. McCorvey began his college coaching career at North Carolina Central in 1978.

McCorvey began his coaching career with a six-year stint (1972-77) at J.M. Tate Senior High School in Florida. He played quarterback at Alabama State from 1968-71, earning his bachelor's degree from Alabama State in 1972 and a master's degree from West Florida in 1977.

He was the recipient of the 2015 AFCA Outstanding Achievement Award for his contributions to college football. In 2013, he was on the Rose Bowl Advisory Committee and returned to that role in 2017. He was a member of the College Football Playoff Advisory Committee in 2014-15 as well.

In 2010, McCorvey was inducted into the Atmore (Ala.) Hall of Fame. He was inducted into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame in 2020 as part of an induction class that included Sylvester Croom, with whom he coached at Mississippi State. In 2021, he was honored as an Alabama Football Legend by the TaxAct Camellia Bowl.

The Atmore, Ala., native is married to the former Ann Brown. The couple has a son, Marlon, daughter-in-law Brooke, and grandson, Beau.

Pat Richards is entering his third season as Clemson's Director of Football Athletic Training in 2024.

Prior to joining Clemson, Richards most recently served as Associate Director of Sports Medicine at the University of Houston for the Cougars' 12-2 season and No. 17 final national ranking. His professional experience began as an athletic training intern with the Dallas Cowboys during the 2012 NFL season. In the years to follow, he served as a graduate assistant at Utah (2013-14), as an athletic training intern at Louisville (2015), as an associate athletic trainer at Mississippi State (2016-18) and as the associate director of sports medicine at Louisiana (2019-20) prior to his role at Houston.

Upon his hire, Richards became only the fourth person to formally serve as Clemson Football's head athletic trainer since 1948. Clemson Athletic Hall of Famer Herman McGee held the role from 1948-57 amidst his 46 total years of service at Clemson that included roles overseeing athletic grounds and equipment. Though there was no designated head trainer in 1958, legendary long-time Milwaukee/Atlanta Braves trainer Dave Pursley temporarily assisted in that capacity alongside McGee during Clemson's 1958 ACC title season while also assisting MLB farm clubs. Fred Hoover, a Clemson Athletic Hall of Famer and 2002 South Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame inductee, led football training efforts as head athletic trainer from 1959-98. Danny Poole served as Clemson's Director of Sports Medicine across the 1999-2021 football seasons as part of his roughly 40 years at Clemson, after which the South Carolina House of Representatives introduced and adopted a resolution to recognize and honor Poole for his service to Clemson student-athletes in early 2022.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

GRAHAM NEFF

- DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
- 3RD FULL SEASON AS DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS AT CLEMSON
- 12TH FULL SEASON AT CLEMSON
- GEORGIA TECH '06

Graham Neff was named Clemson's 14th director of athletics on Dec. 23, 2021 in the midst of his ninth year at Clemson and is now in his third year in the role. During his tenure, Neff has established himself as a forward-thinking leader with a focus on student-athlete well-being and academic and athletic success. Additionally, he has helped to navigate a complicated national landscape, working closely with key stakeholders to stay at the forefront of the issues with an emphasis on the impacts to Clemson.

Neff has overseen significant facility development, including investments at football and a women's sport expansion project to house the new lacrosse and gymnastics teams. He led the bringing of Clemson's multimedia rights in-house, developed a comprehensive NIL program and launched a streaming service, Clemson+. IPTAY has seen record-breaking growth in the past year, which included the largest gift in IPTAY history.

On the field, it has led to significant results. In the 2022-23 season, Clemson's teams won four ACC titles for the first time since 1998-99. In the 2023-24 year, four programs advanced to national quarterfinals, an accomplishment that had not occurred since 1979-80. And in 2023, the men's soccer program claimed its second national championship in three years.

He has been in senior leadership positions within Clemson athletics since 2013, including as chief financial officer and director of capital projects prior to his most recent role as deputy director of athletics. Neff has helped oversee the build and financing of more than $200 million in facility improvements, aided in the continued development of IPTAY, and served as a sport administrator for football and men's basketball.

Neff works consistently with key university stakeholders, including the university Executive Leadership Team, The Board of Trustees, IPTAY Board of Directors, Athletics Council and several university committees and appointments.

During his time as a sport supervisor, the football program won two national championships, the men's basketball program made two NCAA Tournament appearances, including a Sweet 16 run in 2018. Academically, Clemson's graduation success rate has been above 91 percent for 10 consecutive years, best the nation among public power conference institutions with a 97-percent mark for the most-recent data release, and student-athlete total GPA has been above 3.0 for 12 straight semesters.

Neff has helped develop several key areas of the department, including the financial philosophy, fundraising, student-athlete welfare and external operations management, and in 2019, he was named one of Sports Business Daily's "power players." In 2021, he was named to SBJ's 40 Under 40 list.

Prior to his role as deputy AD, he joined Clemson in 2013 as associate AD of finance & facilities. Before Clemson, he served two-plus years in several senior administrative roles with Middle Tennessee athletics, with emphasis in finance, facilities and external operations.

A civil engineering graduate of Georgia Tech, he served as a student manager for Head Coach Paul Hewitt and the men's basketball program, advancing to a Final Four in 2004. Neff worked in the financial advisory services group at Deloitte & Touche from 2006-08 prior to returning to a finance and ticketing role at the Georgia Tech Athletic Association. He earned an MBA from Georgia Tech in 2010.

Neff and his wife, Kristin, have three sons, Grady, and twins, Emmett and Nolan.

IPTAY, founded in 1934, was one of the first scholarship fundraising organizations in college athletics. Its roots trace back to Oct. 16, 1931 following a surprising 6-0 football loss against The Citadel.

After the game, Captains Frank Jervey and Pete Heffner along with Head Coach Jess Neely and Assistant Coach Joe Davis met in a car outside the stadium in Florence, S.C. to discuss various ways Clemson could establish its football program to a competitive status.

Shortly after the meeting, Dr. Rupert Fike offered his help after corresponding with Jervey. Neely believed he could run a successful football team if he was provided a $10,000-a-year increase in scholarships.

Initially, Jervey called for members to pay $30 a year, but Fike recommended a smaller amount of money, which he believed would lead to more members joining. Fike charged 100 people to step forward and pay $10 a year, which is where the name IPTAY (I Pay Ten A Year) originated.

In 1934, the first year of IPTAY, over $1,600 was raised. Some donors negotiated payments in the form of bartering because of the Great Depression. Milk, sweet potatoes, turnip greens and other goods were accepted in an attempt to build a solid membership base.

However, the hard work of Fike and his colleagues began to pay off in the 1939 season, as the Tigers went to their first bowl game, the 1940 Cotton Bowl, where they beat Boston College 6-3 and finished in the top 25 of the AP poll. Coincidentally, IPTAY reached Neely's $10,000 goal for the first time in 1939.

In more recent years, IPTAY's growth of support for Clemson student-athletes has continued to elevate. In addition to athletic scholarships, IPTAY also provides funding for new and upgraded facilities, strength & conditioning, nutrition services, life skills and more. IPTAY is also a strong supporter of Tiger Band, providing funding for new uniforms and travel expenses.

IPTAY is considered by many to be the father of athletic fundraising. It was the first organization in the nation to build and fund an academic support facility solely for educational resources for student-athletes.

Vickery Hall opened in 1991 and established itself as a nationally-recognized program for student-athlete support. The program moved to the Nieri Family Student-Athlete Enrichment Center at the west endzone of Memorial Stadium in 2017.

The IPTAY Collegiate Club, started in 1997, continues to be the model student fundraising organization in the country. Additionally, the IPTAY Tiger Cub Club allows children to be members of IPTAY at a young age. The IPTAY REP volunteer program continues to be a leadership group that grows the IPTAY organization through its role as volunteer annual fundraisers.

IPTAY introduced the endowment of positions program under former Executive Director George Bennett. IPTAY implemented the program in 1994 during the 85th-birthday celebration for former Clemson Head Coach Frank Howard. The first endowment honored Howard, who coached the Tigers for 39 seasons and established much of Clemson football's storied traditions.

The Riggs giving level, established in 2015, is IPTAY's highest annual donation level. IPTAY, led by CEO Davis Babb, has expanded its organizational service to move toward a broader scope of full service. This includes capital gifts, improved marketing plans, estate planning and increasing our membership through our IPTAY REP volunteer program.

For additional information on how you can support IPTAY and all Clemson University student-athletes, call the McCarter Family IPTAY Center at 1-800-CLEMSON or visit the IPTAY website at ClemsonTigers.com/IPTAY.

ALLEN N. REEVES FOOTBALL COMPLEX

Head Coach Dabo Swinney and Tiger athletics sought to build “the forever home of Clemson football” when envisioning what would become the Allen N. Reeves Football Complex, which opened in January 2017. Six years later, the facility remains among the gold standards of performance facilities, not just in college football, but in all of sports worldwide.

While discussion about the $55 million facility spanning in excess of 142,000 square feet often centers around its bells and whistles, its design offers unparalleled functionality. During the facility's ideation, Clemson staff toured more than 35 sports performance facilities, pulling the best, most innovative ideas from every location and using the gleaned insight to create what 247Sports ranked as the nation's No. 1 facility as recently as 2021.

Upon entry into the main lobby of Allen N. Reeves Football Complex, the first thing visitors see are national championship trophies sitting in front of a video screen flanked by massive trophy cases housing additional hardware from Clemson's history. The lobby also displays a scaled replica of Howard's Rock and the Hill from Memorial Stadium, which also includes a button to play audio of Brent Musburger describing college football's grandest entrance prior to Clemson's 2013 game against Georgia.

At the behest of Swinney's original design, immediately visible on the lobby's right side is the home of P.A.W. Journey, a program that cultivates leadership on the team through four main pillars...personal growth, life skills and community service, career and professional development and former player engagement under the guidance of former All-American Jeff Davis.

Next to it, a corridor lined with all of the rings won in Clemson history leads to Hendrix Family Paw Bistro, the best-in-class dining facility whose cuisine is cited by many current and former players as their favorite part of the facility.

Despite national praise for the young facility, Clemson has not rested in its pursuit of making the facility the nation's standard-bearer. In the last several years, the Tigers have continued to invest in the facility's ability to meet the needs of the modern student-athlete, both on and off the field.

In 2023, Clemson completed the addition of Allen N. Reeves Clemson Athletics Branding Institute, a 12,000-square-foot, two-story area on the west end of Betty Sheppard Poe & William Maxwell Poe Indoor Facility and steps from the spacious weight room.

The institute, described in detail on pages 48 and 49 and known colloquially as “The CAB,” contains two spacious photo and video studios, a customizable lighting grid, an audio studio, editing space, office space, meeting space and more to provide on-site resources for student-athletes choosing to pursue sponsorship opportunities and content generation. The lower level of the facility is also home to Smart Family Media Center for press conferences with Head Coach Dabo Swinney and student-athletes.

ALLEN N. REEVES FOOTBALL COMPLEX

A balcony on the top level of the institute overlooks Poe Indoor Facility, an 80,000-square-foot, $10 million structure completed in late 2012. Clemson updated the facility in the spring of 2023, replacing the decade-old playing surface with a Hellas Matrix Helix monofilament synthetic turf system with RealFill rubber atop its Cushdrain drainage and shock pad. The surface helps to minimize wear and tear on Tiger players while allowing the team to continue its preparation in the event of inclement weather.

The facility also received an aesthetic and functional facelift in 2023, with new photos and graphics adorning the walls and the addition of new storage areas for equipment staff. The facility also includes raised video platforms, a game-ready scoreboard, four play clocks, a videoboard and a sound system.

A year earlier, Clemson invested significantly in the holistic health and wellness of its student-athletes with the completion of its "100 Yards of Wellness" area inside Allen N. Reeves Football Complex in 2022. Detailed further on pages 50 and 51, the project has become a central hub and hotbed of student-athlete activity as modern athletes continue to buy into the concept of "prehab," load management and active recovery. The collaboration of Clemson's Director of Applied Science Dr. Alex Bina and Head Athletic Trainer Pat Richards, two young, dynamic leaders in their respective fields, has kept Clemson at the forefront as one of the world's top sports science facilities.

In addition to being a free resource for Clemson's active student-athletes, the space has become a draw for Tiger alumni in the NFL. With Clemson's professional-grade-or-better training areas, Tigers in the NFL have routinely returned and brought their NFL teammates to train in Clemson's facilities during summers between minicamp and training camp. The facility, including the 100 Yards of Wellness area, has inspired both awe and jealousy from NFL players who played collegiately at other programs.

Adjacent to the dining area and 100 Yards of Wellness are the outdoor player village and indoor player lounge. The outdoor area includes a nine-hole miniature golf course, an artificial-surface wiffle ball diamond, a sand volleyball facility, pickleball court, horseshoe pit, fountain with a Tiger Paw monument, outdoor kitchen and lounge area.

The indoor player lounge is complete with a two-lane bowling alley, Pop-A-

Shot, three different video-game console centers, multiple ping-pong and pool tables, a shuffleboard table and Super Bikes motorcycle arcade game. Adjacent to the ping-pong tables is a golf simulator, where student-athletes can play many great golf courses from around the world and learn the game (and professional networking tool) in a comfortable setting.

Down the corridor from the golf simulator is an expanded and renovated barber shop with a pedicure station and massage chairs. The shop's 2021 expansion was designed and constructed in part by former Tiger defensive end Justin Foster, a construction science graduate who served as an assistant superintendent on the renovation project prior to his final season at Clemson. Next to the barber shop is the nap room, designed to offer players a designated space to combat one of the largest obstacles to good mental health...lack of sleep.

Clemson's enormous weight room covers 23,000 square feet and debuted as the country's largest football-only weight room. The entire team can work out at once in the area that includes 20 inlay platforms, numerous machines, fatbells, kettlebells and dumbbells, as well as a well-equipped cardio deck overlooking the lifting area. It also houses the offices of Director of Performance Nutrition Meaghan Turcotte and her staff as well as a nutritional fuel bar.

Clemson's hydrotherapy areas include a large horizontal 47-degree cold tub that can handle 61 players at one time. Next to the locker room, it sits adjacent to the hydrotherapy portion of the 100 Yards of Wellness area that hosts a lap pool and four therapy pools.

The second floor houses offices and meeting spaces for Clemson football personnel, including Swinney's office, which is in the corner with accrued career memorabilia that serves for invited guests as a de facto museum of Clemson football and the future College Football Hall of Famer's career journey.

The second floor contains dedicated and customized meeting space for each position and the team meeting room that seats 180 people. The second level also features a movie theater with 20 lounge chairs.

But most famously, connecting the second-floor meeting spaces down to the locker room, weight room and practice fields is Clemson's renowned slide, which represents the most efficient means to get Tiger players from meetings to practice in a timely manner.

P.A.W. JOURNEY

Clemson football is unapologetic about developing its scholar-athletes through the cutting-edge leadership initiative that is P.A.W. Journey. P.A.W., which stands for “Passionate About Winning,” is the founding principle of this player relations program, positioning Clemson’s football scholar-athletes to maintain a continually competitive posture towards all aspects of their lives.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney consistently encourages his scholar-athletes to maximize all that the sport of football has to offer, including opportunities it creates and the skills it cultivates within each young man that can be used for a lifetime. P.A.W. Journey, serving as the guiding light for how to transfer all the treasure to be gained from football, supports scholar-athletes daily in this endeavor.

P.A.W. Journey focuses on holistic development through its four pillars... Striped, C.U. in Life, 5th Quarter and Overtime. These pillars work harmoniously to progressively develop individuals as a whole so they can become first-class men and world-class leaders.

Striped intentionally identifies and fosters each person’s sense of purpose and the man they aspire to become. C.U. in Life bridges the gap between excellence on the football field and excellence in community, career and around the globe.

5th Quarter instills entrepreneurial spirit and executive skills through professional development, influential marketplace exposure and purposeful employment opportunities. Overtime provides Tiger football alumni and former players opportunities for leadership, growth and relationships, both internal and external to Clemson University.

Founded and led by Clemson’s very own Jeff Davis, P.A.W. Journey is the model player relations program in the country. Along with his team of dedicated personnel, Jeuel Davis, Antoine McClain and Kayla Owens, P.A.W. Journey supports and mentors Clemson’s football scholar-athletes from the time they step foot on campus to their graduation and beyond.

Praise for the P.A.W. Journey experience was echoed by alum Greg Huegel.

“P.A.W. Journey gave us every opportunity to grow as a man, as a leader, on the field, off the field, in our classes, with career development and community initiatives. Many of these different and important characteristics are factors in people's lives, and P.A.W. Journey helps you implement them and put them into action."

Huegel served as a P.A.W. Journey ambassador, a prestigious leadership position currently held by 40 football scholar-athletes that allows them to collaborate with the P.A.W. Journey staff to address the team's needs and desires, as well as to be a representative for P.A.W. Journey on the team and campus, in the marketplace and in the community.

Huegel also took advantage of those opportunities, as he completed microinternships with various companies across the country. He came full circle and began managing his company's (Lima One) microinternship with P.A.W. Journey for current Tiger football scholar-athletes, and he never hesitates to return home to speak to the team and participate in P.A.W. Journey's initiatives.

The program not only encourages them to hone their skills and passions, it empowers them to lead. While no two journeys look the same, the ability to lead with confidence and conviction grows each day with each young man and the experiences they take part in.

"This trip gave me a lot of confidence in my talent off the field," said offensive lineman Tristan Leigh when asked about P.A.W. Journey Business Week in Los Angeles in 2023. "It was one of the first times I felt like more than a football player."

In addition to his outstanding dedication to maturation in the football arena, Leigh has been an emerging example of leadership in every arena of life, including serving as a P.A.W. Journey ambassador and a member of Clemson's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC). Leigh gives back to his community by speaking into the lives of young men just like himself at his high school back home in Fairfax, Va.

Within the ever-evolving landscape of college football, P.A.W. Journey is confident in its ability to recognize and respond to the needs of the newly empowered scholar-athlete at Clemson University and beyond.

PERSONAL GROWTH

Striped intentionally identifies and fosters each individual's sense of purpose and the man they aspire to become. It emphasizes personal growth through utilizing influence, overcoming adversity and initiating transformation.

CHARACTER • CONFIDENCE • CONVICTION

LIFE SKILLS & COMMUNITY SERVICE

C.U. in Life provides opportunities to learn and apply transferable skills, such as financial literacy, communication and mental health awareness. It encourages engagement in sustainable service that promotes the understanding and appreciation of humanity in domestic and global contexts.

EDUCATE • EMPOWER • ENGAGE

CAREER & PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

5th Quarter instills entrepreneurial spirit and executive skills through professional development, influential marketplace exposure and purposeful employment opportunities. It provides a platform for continual connection to Clemson.

PREPARATION • PASSION • PURPOSE

FORMER PLAYER ENGAGEMENT

Overtime provides Clemson football alumni and former players with opportunities for leadership, growth and relationships, both internal and external to Clemson University.

CELEBRATION • CONNECTION • COMMITMENT

Because being passionate about winning in the sport of football, and more importantly in life, will always be the foundation for every Clemson Tiger to pursue first-class manhood and world-class leadership.

CLEMSON ATHLETICS BRANDING INSTITUTE

SCAN TO WATCH VIDEO

The “Best” in “Best is the Standard” got better in early 2023, as Clemson opened the Allen N. Reeves Clemson Athletics Branding Institute to provide Clemson student-athletes best-in-class facilities and resources for branding, marketing, sponsorship, content creation and more.

Attached to the west end of the Poe Indoor Facility, the 12,000-square-foot, two-story facility houses two photo and video studios, an audio studio, editing space, conference room and an NIL coordinator office, all intended to provide on-site resources for student-athletes choosing to pursue sponsorship opportunities and content generation. The facility is also home to the Smart Family Media Center.

From its ideation, “The CAB,” as Head Coach Dabo Swinney nicknamed it, has been intended as a destination for student-athletes seeking branding guidance and resources to help elevate themselves among a crowded marketplace.

“We’re going to call it The CAB because what does a cab do? It gives you a lift to your destination,” said Swinney.

“But guess what, you’ve gotta pay the fare. We can’t do it for you. You’ve got to do the work. I’m really excited about it because it’s a living, breathing space where our guys know they can go for expertise.

“If you’re injured, you go to the training room. If you want to get stronger, you go to the weight room. This was an opportunity for our guys to know that if they want help with branding and sponsorship and NIL and tax education and finances and all of these very real-world issues, you go to The CAB where we have a dedicated space with people ready to help them."

CLEMSON ATHLETICS BRANDING INSTITUTE

According to C.D. Davies, former Clemson NIL coordinator and current general manager of 110 Society, that real-world experience is indispensable and part of Clemson's educational mission.

"This is a great education for them," Davies said of the opportunity for student-athletes to monetize their name, image and likeness. "They're getting an education that a lot of business schools don't get to give young people as far as actually being in the midst of doing these deals and negotiating for themselves, and we're giving them all the tools we can to make sure our players are in control of these transactions."

At the top of the stairs to the second floor of the new facility is a conference room overlooking Clemson's indoor practice field, providing a location for potential sponsors and collectives like 110 Society to meet with Clemson student-athletes.

Down the walkway overlooking the practice field sit three studio spaces for content creation. The first includes a 625-square-foot infinity wall plus permanently installed customizable lighting to provide Clemson content creators and others quick, turnkey options for professional-grade studio space. It also includes a feature wall adorned with a neon-backlit Clemson logo. The second studio is a blank canvas to provide greater flexibility for creation of custom photo and video sets. The third is a soundproof studio complete with top-of-the-line RØDECaster equipment for the production of audio content such as Clemson's 2 Right Turns podcast.

The ground level is home to the Smart Family Media Center, which will serve as a central hub for Clemson's award-winning media operations. The 1,200-square-foot center includes wired workspace for 40 media members to work comfortably and efficiently while interviewing Clemson personnel seated in front of the stage's 163-inch video branding wall, which can be customized for each student-athlete.

The creation of the Smart Family Media Center is the latest illustration of Clemson's larger commitment to serving local and national media and helping them tell the stories of Clemson's student-athletes. Through 2023, Clemson's Athletic Communications staff has won 11 Super 11 awards, presented annually by the Football Writers Association of America to the Football Bowl Subdivision's most helpful sports information departments, the most in the award's history. Clemson's coaches' and student-athletes' helpfulness and authenticity with the media resulted in Clemson becoming the first program ever to earn the honor in nine consecutive years, doing so from 2015-23.

Building construction and renovations for The CAB also included the creation of updated spaces for pro scouts and for returning Clemson football players. The Pro Scout Room has nine workstations for NFL scouts to watch tape, write reports and meet with Clemson personnel. A few yards away is Clemson's NFL locker room, a dedicated space for former NFL players to dress and shower upon their returns to Clemson to train in the offseason.

100 YARDS OF WELLNESS

SCAN TO WATCH VIDEO

Clemson's path to the forefront of elite athlete recovery started with a culture change. For generations, despite the best efforts and cheeriest dispositions of athletic trainers, an unfortunate misconception lingered...the athletic training room is for the injured, and for the injured, the athletic training room is not a happy place to be.

"We really wanted to get away from the mentality of the 'Training Room,'" said Head Coach Dabo Swinney. "We wanted to get away from the idea that it was only for guys who are injured and don't want to be in there."

Enter Jeanne & Brian Penner 100 Yards of Wellness, Clemson's new $4.9-million wellness space at Allen N. Reeves Football Complex spanning roughly 300 feet in length that has become a central hub of activity and major point of pride for Clemson football.

Completed in 2022, 100 Yards of Wellness represents the natural evolution of Tiger football's long-time commitment to student-athlete health and wellness. By literally and figuratively breaking down walls that divided the focus areas, the new space combines Clemson's athletic training and rehabilitation expertise with its continued innovation in active recovery and applied science.

"Now it's a total wellness commitment, the mental side, the wellness side, the 'prehab' side, the applied science side, your stretching, your nutrition...all of it combined in this one big space," said Swinney. "It has created an environment where the guys want to be there all the time."

In 2018, Clemson enclosed what was previously an outdoor patio area to create Clemson Applied Science Lab (or CASL, pronounced "castle"). The area served a two-fold mission. It served as the hub of Clemson's data and performance analysis as well as a space for "prehab" and recovery.

As Clemson student-athletes bought in, the space became one of Allen N. Reeves Football Complex's most heavily trafficked areas. With demand quickly outgrowing the footprint, Clemson embarked upon the renovation and expansion immediately after the team's final practice of the spring in 2022.

Whereas walls previously divided the athletic training room from the recovery space, the new open-concept area features Clemson's medical diagnostic and treatment area to the north and the recovery space to the south, bisected by a nutrition bar. Visitors are often surprised to find an almost club-like atmosphere with upbeat music and moving colored lights creating a welcoming environment rather than a stale, clinical one.

The center has created additional collaboration between the athletic training staff, led by Head Athletic Trainer Pat Richards, and Clemson's applied science group, pioneered by Dr. Alex Bina.

100 YARDS OF WELLNESS

"There is no one in the country I would rather have caring for our student-athletes in these positions than the duo of Pat Richards and Alex Bina," said Swinney. "Pat is incredibly well respected and is a young, dynamic leader in the athletic training industry."

"Alex is an example of blooming where you're planted. He was a student volunteer who went from working from a laptop on a weight room stool to creating an applied science department that operates college football's premier recovery facility. Those two are the best in the business, and that shows in how much our players love them and trust them."

Clemson's treatment and athletic training room area includes all requisite athletic training resources, including a diagnostic office with a full digital X-ray space and diagnostic ultrasound, general medical exam room, 30 yards of turf and hydrotherapy areas, including two underwater treadmills. Among the features of the recovery center are:

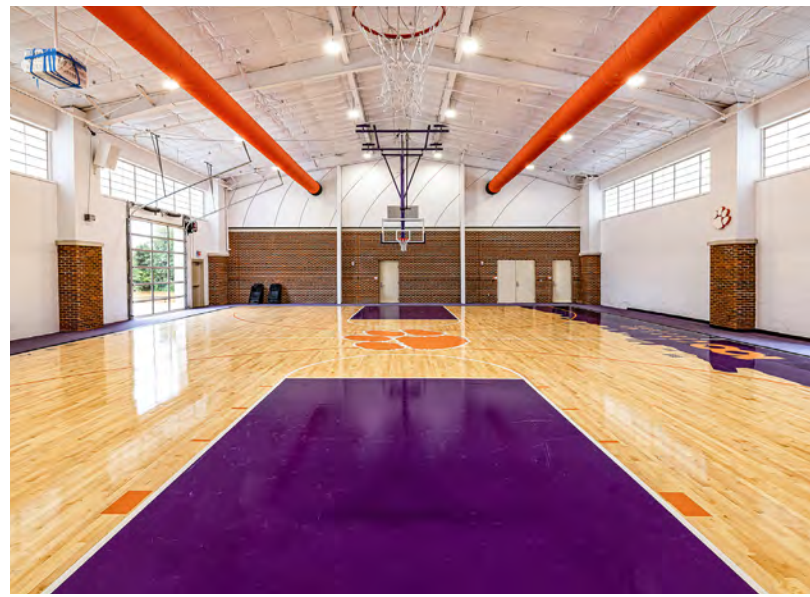

- A cryotherapy chamber for muscle recovery through extreme cold temperature exposure.
- Infrared hyperthermic Cocoon pods for far-infrared light therapy and vibrational massage.
- A sensory deprivation float tank that houses 1,200 pounds of Epsom salt dissolved in water at skin temperature to remove athletes from light, sound and some gravitational force.

- Photobiomodulation therapy beds that leverage multiple wavelengths of infrared light to reduce oxidative stress.
- A hyperbaric chamber to create a pressurized environment for concentrated oxygen intake.
- Numerous massage chairs, including both percussive massage and hydro-massage options.
- Percussive Hypervolt massage guns.
- Dedicated tables and space for practitioner-assisted stretching, percussive massage gun therapy, and Normatec compressive sleeves provided to each player prior to the season.
- Functional testing equipment to obtain objective information on student-athlete muscle and joint function that can be used for injury prevention and return-to-play purposes.

The renovations also included updating the outdoor basketball court into an indoor basketball court, which, in addition to being a source of friendly competition, now can be transformed following games into a movement studio for active recovery modalities like yoga.

The CASL is also a nap destination, but the high-energy vibes and heavy traffic of the subsequent 100 Yards of Wellness space required an additional solution. Atop a portion of the south end of the recovery area is what the team calls "Tranquility Tower," an upstairs, quiet location with much of the same recovery equipment, but in a serene, peaceful environment conducive to rest and away from the social activity of the main floor.

Clemson's recovery resources have become a source of envy for its former players. Two-time All-American and NFL wide receiver Sammy Watkins remarked to Swinney that he routinely spends more than $50,000 annually on services to maintain his body now provided to Clemson student-athletes for free.

The facility has also become a destination for Clemson's alumni in the NFL, as several dozen NFL players have opted to train in Clemson during recent off-seasons to take advantage of the state-of-the-art recovery space.

CLEMSON APPLIED SCIENCE LAB

Brook T. Smith Clemson Applied Science Lab ("The CASL") has a very simple mission... "Carry out the vision of the head football coach by providing confidence to student-athletes that their physical and technical development is constantly advancing."

Director of Applied Science Dr. Alex Bina has done everything in his power to ensure that those words ring true and Tiger student-athletes are given every possible opportunity to both improve performance and physically recover, using any and all modern technologies available.

The two key focuses of "The CASL" are maximizing performance and expediting recovery.

The ultimate goal is quantifying human performance. Once the body and its abilities are put into numerical terms, it becomes considerably easier to determine what needs to be improved and the best possible route to enhance it.

Throughout the yearly training cycle, athletes are evaluated using technologies that leverage motion capture, force plates, sensory station, augmented reality, force transducers and GPS sensors in order to quantify athletic development. Through this process, an athlete's body composition, movement efficiency, vertical jump performance, cognitive reasoning skills, specific muscle strength, joint range of motion and on-field speed become clear to coach and athlete alike.

By building a database of the "Clemson Effect" on athlete development and performance, the Clemson football staff can continue to build championship squads for future generations of Tiger players.

Not only does "The CASL" provide coaches and student-athletes with quantitative data with which they can analyze performance, it also is a key resource for student-athletes to use during the recovery process and injury risk mitigation protocols. Bina stressed that quick and healthy recovery is the priority of the staff at "The CASL."

The path to success in recovery is a two-step process. The first is communication and collaboration between the student-athlete and his strength & conditioning coach, nutrition and sports medicine experts and his sports psychologist. The second is using the established baseline scores of the student-athlete as targets for return-to-play protocols and as a foundation for injury-prevention training.

In 2022, through a collaborative effort with the sports medicine staff, "The CASL" launched an injury-risk-mitigation protocol that leverages data analysis to inform athlete-specific interventions.

After each training cycle (winter, spring, summer), the entire roster is evaluated for strength and mobility deficiencies or imbalances. These deficiencies inspire tune-up exercises carried out by the sports medicine staff to attack issues before they become long-term injuries.

The injury-risk-mitigation program carried out in "The CASL" was made possible through a cornerstone gift donated by Clemson alum and former Student Athletic Trainer Brook T. Smith ('89) to ensure that Clemson student-athletes can benefit from leading innovations occurring in human performance development.

Bina has always been interested in bioengineering, which is the degree he earned from Penn State. Bina, who received his Ph.D. from Clemson, is implementing a simple plan, which is to "learn how the body works as a machine and put students in a position to manipulate that machine to improve recovery and performance."

Tiger players have been responding very positively to the work that Bina and "The CASL" have done for them, and as a program, Clemson has seen tremendous success in terms of both its players' short and long-term recoveries.

Bina wants to ensure that "everything possible is being done for them" to get them back to their peak performance as healthily and as quickly as possible.

As far as long-term and overarching goals and aspirations for "The CASL," Bina offered the following.

"When we talk about, 'Best is the Standard,' that means in all ways possible. This is just another piece of that puzzle."

THE CASL WAS MADE POSSIBLE THROUGH THE CORNERSTONE GIFT DONATED BY CLEMSON ALUM AND FORMER STUDENT ATHLETIC TRAINER BROOK T. SMITH ('89).

As part of Allen N. Reeves Football Complex that opened on Feb. 1, 2017, the Tiger program opened one of the top strength training facilities in the nation. The 23,000 square-foot football facility has all the latest in modern strength training that helps the Tigers prepare year-round.

The facility includes 20 inlay platforms, 30 pieces of cardio equipment, a full line of fatbells, kettlebells and dumbbells, eight different training zones and a nutrition bar.

The facility also has the latest high-tech sound system, many flatscreens and the best lighting available that puts wall graphics in full view, leading to the best possible work environment. In 2023, a videoboard was constructed inside the strength training facility.

The facility is attached to the indoor football facility and faces the outdoor practice facility, making for the most convenient and efficient facility in the nation.

MEMORIAL STADIUM

Clemson's Memorial Stadium has been held in high esteem for many years. Whether it is players from the 1940s and 1950s, opposing players from the 1970s and 1980s or even professional players in the 1990s, the ambiance of this special setting is what college football is all about.

Clemson has finished in the top 20 in the country in average home attendance for 43 straight seasons. Clemson ranked third in the country and first in the ACC in total attendance in 2020 and led the conference (and finished 14th in the nation) in average attendance in 2023.

The storied edifice added to its legend when the first meeting of father-and-son head coaches (Bowden Bowl I) took place before a record crowd of 86,092 in 1999. The legend was further enhanced from 2016-22, when the Tigers had an ACC-record 40-game home winning streak, tied for eighth longest in FBS history. Since the advent of the College Football Playoff in 2014, Clemson is 65-3 at home, tied for the highest home winning percentage in the nation.

The facility's mystique is derived from its many traditions, which date to its opening in the 1942 season, the legendary games and players and Clemson's corresponding rate of success. Entering 2024, the Tigers have totaled 340 wins in 82 years and have won 76.2 percent of the contests (340-104-7). Visiting defending national champions are 0-3 all-time at Memorial Stadium as well.

The stadium has definitely been good to the Tigers, but it was constructed against the advice of at least one coach. Before Jess Neely left for Rice after the 1939 season, he gave Clemson a message.

"Don't ever let them talk you into building a big stadium," he said. "Put about 10,000 seats behind the YMCA. That's all you'll ever need."

Instead of following Neely's advice, Clemson officials decided to build the new stadium in a valley on the western part of campus. The crews went to work, clearing, cutting, pouring and forming. On Sept. 19, 1942, Memorial Stadium opened with Clemson defeating Presbyterian by a score of 32-13. Those 20,000 seats installed for the opener would soon grow.

When the original part of the stadium was built in the early 1940s, much of the work was done by scholarship student-athletes, including football players. The first staking out of the stadium was done by two members of the football team, A.N. Cameron and Hugh Webb. Webb returned to Clemson years later to become an architecture professor and Cameron went on to become a civil engineer in Louisiana.

The construction of Memorial Stadium did not proceed without problems. One afternoon during the clearing of the land, a young player proudly announced that he was not allergic to poison oak. He then proceeded to attack the poison oak with a swing blade, throwing the plants to and fro. The next day, the boy was swollen twice his size and was hospitalized.

There are many other stories about the stadium, including one that Frank Howard put a chew of tobacco in each corner of the stadium as the concrete was poured.

Howard said that the seeding of the grass caused a few problems.

HIGHEST HOME WIN % SINCE 2014

"About 40 people and I laid sod on the field," he said. "After three weeks on July 15, we had only gotten about halfway through. I told them that it had taken us three weeks to get that far and I would give them three more weeks' pay for however long it took to finish. I also told them we would have 50 gallons of ice cream when we got through."

"After that, it took them three days to do the rest of the field. Then we sat down in the middle of the field and ate up that whole 50 gallons."

Howard said on the day of the first game in the stadium, "The gates were hung at 1 p.m., and we played at 2 p.m."

In 1958, 18,000 sideline seats were added, and in 1960, 5,658 west end-zone seats were added in response to increasing attendance. With the large east endzone ("Green Grass" section), this expansion increased capacity to 53,000.

Later, upper decks were added to each side of the stadium as crowds swelled, the first in 1978 and the second in 1983. It increased capacity to over 80,000, which makes it one of the largest on-campus stadiums in the country. In 2006, the WestZone was added.

The original part of Memorial Stadium was built at a cost of $125,000, or $6.25 per seat. The newest upper deck was finished in 1983 at a cost of $13.5 million, or $866 per seat.

In 2022, Clemson debuted several stadium enhancements. The videoboard received its first major upgrade since 2005, installing the new affectionately and unofficially nicknamed "DaboTron" that measures 126 feet wide by 56.5 feet tall, eighth largest in the NCAA at the time of its installation. The eight main stadium light poles were updated to an LED system, allowing for light fixture control, spotlighting of Howard's Rock and higher-quality field lighting.

The west side of the stadium received a facelift with the addition of IPTAY's Masters Club, a 688-seat premium area on the concourse level. Clemson also installed new signage honoring the all-time greats, championship seasons and backlighting of the traditional "Clemson Welcomes You to Death Valley" signage.

Clemson began Phase II of renovations after the 2022 season. The renovations included a new gameday locker room and a complete reimagining of Lot 5 and the Tiger Walk experience as a 365-day destination for Clemson fans.

Through the years, Memorial Stadium has become known as "Death Valley" across the country. It was tagged by Presbyterian Head Coach Lonnie McMillian during the late 1940s. After bringing his teams to Clemson for many years and getting whipped, he said the place was like "Death Valley." A few years later, the name stuck.

In 1974, the playing surface was named Frank Howard Field for the legendary coach and his long service and dedication to Clemson. Luckily, it wasn't built behind the YMCA.

RUNNING DOWN THE HILL

What has been described by television commentator Brent Musburger as “the most exciting 25 seconds in college football” from a color and pageantry standpoint actually started out as a matter-of-fact entrance, mainly because of necessity.

The first 20,000 seats in Memorial Stadium were built and ready for use before the 1942 season, less than a year after Pearl Harbor was bombed and the U.S. was drawn into World War II.

The shortest entry into Memorial Stadium was a short walk down Williamson Road from Fike Fieldhouse’s dressing rooms to a gate at the top of the Hill, located behind the east endzone. There were no dressing facilities inside the west endzone...there was only a giant clock, where the hands turned, and a scoreboard that was operated by hand.

Players would dress in Fike Fieldhouse, walk down Williamson Road, enter at the gate underneath where the scoreboard now stands and jog down the Hill for their warmup exercises. There was little fanfare, no cannon shot fired, no Tiger Paw flag and no “Tiger Rag” played...just the team making its entrance and lining up to do the side-straddle hop. That is the way things went for the next 25 years.

In 1964 or 1965, Sam Jones (Clemson class of 1919) made a trip to California. He stopped at a spot in Death Valley, Calif. and picked up a white flint rock. Jones presented the rock to legendary Head Coach Frank Howard as being from Death Valley, California to Death Valley, South Carolina.

The rock laid on Howard’s office floor in Fike Fieldhouse for months. One day, he was cleaning up his office and told Gene Willimon (IPTAY executive secretary) to “take this rock and throw it over the fence or out in the ditch...do something with it, but get it out of my office!”

Willimon did not think that was the way a rock should be treated. After all, it had been brought over 1,900 miles by a very sincere Tiger fan.

By the mid 1960s, Memorial Stadium was living up to its moniker (“Death Valley”), because of the number of Tiger victories that had been recorded there. Actually, the name was first used by Lonnie McMillian, head coach at Presbyterian during the 1940s.

McMillian and the other Blue Hose coaches before him opened each season by playing at Clemson. Seldom scoring (24 shutouts in 39 games) and with only three wins and four ties, his teams were getting “killed” by the Tigers regularly.

In 1948, McMillian made the remark to the press that he was taking his team to play Clemson in “Death Valley.” An occasional reference to Memorial Stadium by that name could be heard for the next four years, but when Howard started calling it “Death Valley” in the 1950s, the name took off like wildfire. Clemson celebrated its 80th year in the “Valley” in 2021 with a 6-0 home record and its fifth straight undefeated home campaign.

But getting back to Howard’s Rock.

It was mounted on a pedestal at the top of the Hill on the east side of the stadium. It was unveiled Sept. 24, 1966, when Clemson played Virginia. The Tigers trailed by 18 points with 17 minutes left and came back to win 40-35 on a 75-yard pass from Jimmy Addison to Jacky Jackson in the fourth quarter. That was quite a debut for Howard’s Rock.

The team members started rubbing Howard’s Rock prior to running down the Hill on Sept. 23, 1967, a day when Clemson defeated Wake Forest 23-6.

Prior to running down the Hill, Howard told his players, “If you’re going to give 110 percent, you can rub that Rock. If you’re not, keep your filthy hands off it!”

Howard told of the incident the following day on his television show, and the story became legend.

When Hootie Ingram succeeded Howard as head coach in 1970, he made the logical decision that the team would make its final entrance out of the new dressing room in the west endzone.

In all home games in 1970 and 1971 and the first four games of 1972 when the Tigers did not run down the Hill, their combined record was 6-9.

The seniors, led by Ben Anderson, decided to come down the Hill prior to the South Carolina game, the 1972 finale. The result, in a cold, freezing rain, was a 7-6 victory when Jimmy Williamson knocked down a two-point conversion attempt, which preserved the narrow win.

Clemson has made the entrance before every home contest since 1942, except for the years mentioned and the first game of the 1973 season (435 times entering 2024).

After final warmups, the team gathers in its dressing room under the west endzone stands for its final pregame instructions. Ten minutes prior to kickoff, the players and coaches board multiple buses, ride around the north stands to the east endzone and disembark to the top of the Hill behind Howard’s Rock.

At the appointed time, the cannon booms, and led by a giant Tiger Paw flag carried by cheerleaders and Rally Cats, the band forms two lines for the team to run between and strikes up “Tiger Rag.” The frenzy starts in all sincerity and usually lasts three hours.

It is a tradition that has inspired Clemson players for many years. USA Today agreed, as it rated it the best entrance in the nation in 2017.

Duke took advantage of three second-half turnovers to pull away from No. 9 Clemson, 28-7, at Wallace Wade Stadium.

The game marked the first time in Clemson history that the Tigers both rushed and passed for 200 yards and lost. Entering the game, Clemson had been 108-0 — including a 58-0 mark under Dabo Swinney — when reaching 200 yards in both categories. Clemson out-gained Duke, 422-374, and led the Blue Devils in first downs, 29-17, in the defeat.

After two Duke field goals, Wade Woodaz recovered a muffed punt on Duke's 18-yard line, setting up Will Shipley's first career receiving touchdown on a pass from Klubnik for a 7-6 lead the Tigers would carry into halftime.

On the first possession of the second half, Duke quarterback Riley Leonard escaped from the pocket and scored on a 44-yard touchdown run, giving Duke a 13-7 lead. Clemson drove the ensuing possession deep into Duke territory but suffered its second blocked field goal attempt of the evening.

The Tigers again drove deep into Duke's end late in the third quarter and appeared poised to take the lead, but a Mafah fumble on the one-yard line ended the scoring threat. Klubnik saved a touchdown, running nearly 60 yards to track down Jaylen Stinson, but the Blue Devils added a touchdown on the ensuing six-play scoring drive.

Clemson got the ball back on their own 20-yard line with 5:43 left on the clock in search of 14 points. However, a Duke interception on the fourth play of the drive gave the Blue Devils the ball back with a two-possession lead. A 30-yard touchdown run from Jordan Waters sealed a 28-7 Duke victory.

No. 21 Clemson scored 45 unanswered points over the final three quarters to defeat Charleston Southern, 66-17, in Clemson's home opener. The Tigers played a school-record 117 players in the contest.

Clemson overcame a couple of critical early mistakes. A Clemson fumble on fourth down in its own territory set up a one-yard Charleston Southern touchdown, and a 67-yard pick six gave the Buccaneers a 14-7 lead late in the first quarter. The game was tied 14-14 after the first quarter despite a 198-6 Clemson advantage in offensive yardage and 12-0 Clemson edge in first downs at the quarter break.

Clemson outscored Charleston Southern, 52-3, over the remaining three quarters. Phil Mafah (two rushing), Antonio Williams (two receiving) and Jay Haynes (one rushing, one receiving) all found the end zone twice during the contest, and Beaux Collins led the Tigers with seven receptions and 137 receiving yards, including a 69-yard catch-and-run for a score. Clemson's 37 first downs were the third most in school history.

Defensively, Clemson held the Bucs to only 73 total yards and four first downs. Linebacker Wade Woodaz returned his first career interception 35 yards for a score.

The game was Dabo Swinney's 100th home game as head coach, improving him to 92-8 in Death Valley.

Twenty first-quarter points sparked No. 22 Clemson to a 48-14 prime-time win against Florida Atlantic at Memorial Stadium.

Cade Klubnik was responsible for four total touchdowns — three passing and one rushing. Wide receiver Tyler Brown caught two touchdowns, becoming the first Clemson freshman with two receiving touchdowns in a game since Justyn Ross in the 2018 Cotton Bowl.

Clemson forced four turnovers in the victory. Cornerback Nate Wiggins jumpstarted Clemson and opened the scoring with a 46-yard interception return for touchdown, become the first Tiger with a pick-six in consecutive seasons since Rex Varn in 1977-78. Khalil Barnes recorded his first career interception later in the quarter, and Wade Woodaz notched his second interception in as many weeks later in the contest, becoming the first Clemson linebacker with a pick in back-to-back games since Isaiah Simmons in 2019.

After Wiggins' opening salvo, the Tigers added four more touchdowns in the first half, including scoring passes from Klubnik to Brown and Jake Briningstool as well as rushing touchdowns by Phil Mafah and Klubnik, giving Clemson a 34-0 lead at halftime.

Both teams added 14 points in the second half. Clemson's 14 second-half points included Brown adding his second touchdown of the game from Klubnik and running back Domonique Thomas rushing for his first touchdown of his NCAA career after walking on from NAIA Union College in Kentucky in 2022.

Miami (Fla.) overcame a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit to defeat Clemson, 28-20, in double overtime at Hard Rock Stadium.

Sophomore quarterback Cade Klubnik was 18-for-34 for 314 yards. Klubnik connected with tight end Jake Briningstool five times for 126 yards and two touchdowns. Briningstool's 126 yards broke Clemson's school record for single-game receiving yards by a tight end, surpassing Jordan Leggett's 122 yards against Florida State in 2016.

Turnovers once again played a major role for Clemson, as the Tigers' recorded one takeaway against three giveaways.

Clemson appeared poised to take an early lead, but Miami recovered a Clemson fumble in the Hurricane end zone. On the ensuing play, Miami opened the scoring on an 80-yard touchdown, as Brashard Smith broke free on a rush up the middle, and though Nate Wiggins chased him down and forced a fumble at the one-yard line, Miami's Jacobly George recovered the fumble in the end zone for a touchdown. Klubnik and Briningstool's first scoring connection in the second quarter evened the game at 7-7 at the half.

Clemson added 10 points in the third quarter on a 41-yard Jonathan Weitz field goal and an acrobatic 19-yard touchdown by Briningstool. However, Miami responded with 10 points of its own in the fourth quarter to send the game to overtime.

The teams traded field goals in the first overtime period. After Miami's Ajay Allen rushed for a touchdown and a two-point conversion in double overtime, Miami finished a goal-line stand by chasing down Klubnik on the edge on fourth down to earn the win.

Clemson outscored NC State 10-0 in the fourth quarter but the Tigers' comeback attempt fell short as NC State defeated Clemson, 24-17, at Carter-Finley Stadium.

Clemson's defense held NC State to 202 yards, and the Tigers outgained the Wolfpack, 364-202, but NC State converted two takeaways into 14 points in the Wolfpack's seven-point win.

NC State took advantage of an early Klubnik interception on its own 40-yard line, scoring first after a 50-yard rush set up a nine-yard touchdown reception from Kevin Concepcion with 7:18 to play in the first quarter.

NC State extended the lead to 10-0 on a Brayden Narveson 41-yard field goal in the second quarter. On its ensuing drive, Clemson went 75 yards in nine plays as Phil Mafah punched in his fifth touchdown of the season with 8:24 to play before halftime.

The Wolfpack upped their lead to 17-7 when Payton Wilson returned a deflected Klubnik pass 15 yards for a touchdown. NC State scored again on a 72-yard connection from MJ Morris to Concepcion with 4:35 to play in the third quarter, taking a 24-7 lead.

Early in the fourth quarter, Mafah capped a 10-play 75-yard drive with another one-yard score, which cut the deficit to 24-14. After Clemson's defense forced a pair of three-and-outs, Mafah jump-started another Clemson scoring drive with a 41-yard gain on the first play of a possession to carry the Tigers to the NC State nine-yard line. A 19-yard field goal by Jonathan Weitz at the end of that possession pulled the score to 24-17.

Clemson forced NC State to punt, giving the Tigers the ball back trailing by seven points with 4:23 left to play in the game. An incompletion on 4th-and-19 kept the score at 24-17 and gave NC State the ball and the eventual victory.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney earned his 166th career victory to become Clemson's all-time winningest coach as Clemson earned a 31-23 upset of No. 12 Notre Dame at Memorial Stadium.

Clemson recorded its first penalty-free game on record since the 1952 Gator Bowl. Jeremiah Trotter Jr. led Clemson defensively with 11 tackles, 2.5 tackles for a loss, 2.0 sacks and a pick-six. Phil Mafah rushed for two touchdowns and recorded a career-high 186 rushing yards on a school-record-tying 36 carries.

Notre Dame opened the scoring with a 43-yard field goal. Clemson's scored on its second possession on a 41-yard touchdown run by Mafah. The teams traded field goals, and Tyler Brown later extended Clemson's lead on a nine-yard touchdown catch. On the Irish's next drive, Trotter returned an interception 28 yards for a score, giving Clemson a 24-6 second quarter lead.

Early in the third quarter, an Xavier Watts interception gave Notre Dame the ball on Clemson's two-yard line, setting up an Audric Estime touchdown. Mafah then capped an 11-play, 75-yard drive with a one-yard rushing touchdown to put Clemson up 31-16. Notre Dame again cut the lead though on a 26-yard touchdown run by Hartman.

Kylon Griffin's first career interception gave Clemson the ball in the final two minutes, but a fumble by Mafah gave the ball back with 1:47 remaining. However, Clemson harassed Hartman and forced a turnover on downs, allowing Clemson to run out the clock.

The loss dropped Hartman to 0-5 against Clemson as a starter, becoming the first Power Five starting quarterback to go 0-5 against an opponent since Florida State's Chris Rix versus Miami (Fla.) in the early 2000s.

Clemson's freshmen took center stage and helped the Tigers score 42 consecutive points in a 42-21 win against Georgia Tech at Memorial Stadium.

True freshmen and redshirt freshmen combined for three of Clemson's six touchdowns (Tyler Brown, Josh Sapp and Shelton Lewis) and all four of its interceptions (Khalil Barnes, Avieon Terrell, Kylon Griffin, Lewis). Clemson became the first FBS team since at least 2000 to have four freshmen record a pick in a game.

Cade Klubnik completed 23-of-34 passes for 205 yards and a career-high tying four touchdown passes in leading the Tigers to victory. After Georgia Tech struck first on a short field, touchdown passes to Beaux Collins and Brown gave Clemson a 14-7 second-quarter lead. The first touchdown came on a drive lasting 9:51, the longest scoring drive (and second-longest drive of any result) in school history. Running back Will Shipley added a 32-yard rushing touchdown late in the second to push the Tigers' halftime advantage to 21-8.

Klubnik added two more touchdowns in the second half, finding tight ends Jake Briningstool and Josh Sapp for touchdowns of five yards and 13 yards, respectively, to take a 35-7 lead early in the fourth quarter.

Less than two minutes after the Briningstool touchdown, Lewis extended the Tiger lead to 35 with a 46-yard pick-six on his first career interception. He also added four pass breakups in the contest, one shy of a school record and the most by a Tiger since Mario Goodrich's four at Syracuse in 2021.

Georgia Tech added two late touchdowns to bring the final score to 42-21. Clemson held Georgia Tech to 254 yards, 142 of which came on the Yellow Jackets' final two drives of the game with the result already decided.

Will Shipley recorded 179 yards from scrimmage as Clemson defeated No. 20/22 North Carolina, 31-20, at Memorial Stadium on Senior Day.

Clemson held reigning ACC Player of the Year Drake Maye to 16-of-36 passing for 209 yards and one touchdown, the lowest completion percentage and pass efficiency rating of his career. Clemson's offense totaled 466 yards on 89 plays.

North Carolina jumped out to a 7-0 lead and was poised to take a two-touchdown lead when Nate Wiggins stripped Omarion Hampton at the goal line for a touchback. Wiggins later added an acrobatic interception of Maye with 2:37 to play to help seal the win.

Clemson outscored North Carolina 14-0 in the second frame on a touchdown pass from Klubnik to Jake Briningstool and a touchdown rush by Klubnik as time nearly expired. Phil Mafah extended Clemson's lead to 21-7 with a third-quarter rushing touchdown.

North Carolina cut the lead on a 55-yard rushing touchdown by Hampton, who finished the day with 178 rushing yards. But Shipley both jumpstarted and finished a response drive, capping a six-play, 75-yard drive with a 33-yard rushing touchdown to push the lead back to 14. Jonathan Weitz's 21-yard field goal increased Clemson's lead to 31-14.

Hampton ran for a three-yard rushing touchdown with 7:03 left in the game, but Andrew Mukuba broke up Maye's pass on a two-point conversion attempt, leaving the score at 31-20.

The teams remained scoreless in their remaining possessions, and Wiggins recorded his third career interception (and second all-time off Maye) to give Clemson the ball back on the 25-yard line with 2:37 left to play. Clemson ran the clock out to earn the 31-20 win.

Clemson's defense scored a touchdown and held rival South Carolina to 169 yards of offense in a 16-7 victory at Williams-Brice Stadium. The 169 yards of offense were the fewest allowed by a Clemson defense in the series since 1989 (155).

Khalil Barnes set the tone, becoming the first Clemson player since Brian Dawkins in 1995 to record a takeaway on consecutive plays from scrimmage. On the second snap of the game, he recovered a dropped lateral and returned it 42 yards for a touchdown just 25 seconds into the game. Clemson's fastest score against South Carolina since C.J. Spiller ran back the opening kickoff in 2009. It was also Clemson's school-record-tying fifth defensive touchdown of the season. On South Carolina's next offensive play, Barnes made a diving interception on a deep pass by Spencer Rattler.

After surrendering its only touchdown of the game with 6:39 to play in the first quarter, Clemson's defense forced eight consecutive punts and a turnover on downs over South Carolina's final nine possessions. Clemson allowed just 66 yards on those nine drives. Offensively, the Tigers piled up 219 yards rushing, including 89 from running back Phil Mafah, 80 from running back Will Shipley, and a career-high 52 from Cade Klubnik.

Placekicker Jonathan Weitz finished 3-for-3 on field goals to account for the final margin of victory in Clemson's nine-point win. He converted field goal attempts of 50, 49 and 42 yards after entering the evening with a career long of 41. His three field goals of 40-plus yards tied a school record set previously by four others.

Weitz's career-long 50-yard field goal in the first quarter was Clemson's longest field goal since a 52-yarder by B.T. Potter in the 2022 ACC Championship Game. The 50-yarder came in the same stadium as the first 50-yard field goal in Clemson history, a 52-yarder by Eddie Seigler against South Carolina in 1971.

2023 GAME RECAPS

GAME 13

CLEMSON 38
KENTUCKY 35

GATOR BOWL • DEC. 29, 2023
EVERBANK STADIUM • JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

Phil Mafah ran for a Gator Bowl-record four touchdowns, including three in the fourth quarter to earn game MVP honors, as Clemson came back from an 11-point fourth-quarter deficit for a 38-35 win over Kentucky (7-6) at EverBank Stadium in Jacksonville, Fla. The Tigers (9-4) finished the season on a five-game winning streak and boasting a postseason victory in an FBS-record 13 straight seasons.

Clemson trailed 21-10 entering the fourth quarter and exploded for a school-record-tying 28 fourth-quarter points and the defense forced four turnovers in the final frame to lead the Tigers to a fifth Gator Bowl victory in school history.

The Tigers tallied 367 yards of offense, including 264 through the air and 103 on the ground. Mafah scored touchdowns on four of his 11 carries, finishing with 71 yards. Sophomore quarterback Cade Klubnik completed 30-of-41 passes, including going 8-for-8 on the game-winning drive that ended with Mafah's fourth score with 17 seconds remaining. The game featured five lead changes in the game's final 6:45.

Clemson scored on its opening possession, fueled in part by a 34-yard kickoff return by Shipley and a Wildcat personal foul penalty on the first play from scrimmage. Weitz nailed a 39-yard field goal, giving the Tigers the 3-0 lead.

Kentucky reached the endzone on its second drive as Barion Brown scored off of a 22-yard touchdown run and gave the Wildcats a 7-3 first-quarter lead. Clemson's defense did not let Kentucky gain any yardage on its next possession and only allowed two yards on the following, resulting in back-to-back three-and-outs.

A 28-yard completion to Jake Briningstool set up Phil Mafah to push his way one yard through traffic for a Clemson touchdown, giving the Tigers a 10-7 lead with 10:17 left in the first half. Kentucky responded quickly with a 58-yard completion to Dane Key followed by a five-yard touchdown pass to Key, bringing the score to 14-10 in favor of Kentucky with 7:44 remaining in the second quarter. Kentucky maintained that four-point advantage heading into halftime.

The Wildcats opened the second half with a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown by Brown, extending the score to 21-10. Though NCAA recordkeeping limits returns to 100 yards, the return unofficially covered 102 yards.

Clemson drove 70 yards on 14 plays as Mafah found his way into the end zone for a second time from a yard out. The drive covered 6:43, and Mafah's score came on the first play of the fourth quarter. Klubnik's two-point pass attempt was knocked down at the goal line, leaving Clemson a 21-16 deficit with 14:56 to play.

Clemson's defense then continued to build momentum as Justin Mascoll recovered a loose ball after an Xavier Thomas sack forced Devin Leary to fumble, giving Clemson's offense the ball back on Kentucky's 25-yard line. On Clemson's first play following the turnover, Klubnik got hit as he threw a deep ball which allowed Jordan Lovett to pick it off and give the ball right back to Kentucky.

However, Kentucky wouldn't have the ball for long as on its third play, Barrett Carter batted Leary's pass up to himself and caught the ball for the interception. After driving 26 yards down the field, Weitz made a 28-yard field goal to draw the Tigers to within two at 21-19.

On Kentucky's next offensive play, Khalil Barnes knocked the ball out of Barion Brown's hands and once again Carter was there to recover the loose ball. Clemson capitalized immediately with Mafah running 29 yards for the touchdown. A short completion to Tyler Brown gave Clemson two more points to give the Tigers a 27-21 lead with 6:45 left in the game.

Just 33 seconds later, Leary found Brown for a 60-yard touchdown pass to return the advantage to Kentucky. The Wildcats' lead would not last long as Weitz kicked a dramatic career-long and Gator-Bowl-record 52-yard field goal that bounced off the crossbar and through the uprights to give Clemson a 30-28 lead with 4:20 left to play.

Kentucky then produced another quick touchdown drive which started with a 72-yard gain from Jordan Dingle and finished with a one-yard touchdown run from Ray Davis to return the lead to the Wildcats.

CLEMSON RING OF HONOR MEMBERS

The Clemson Ring of Honor is the highest honor a Tiger student-athlete can receive. A recipient must first be a member of the Clemson Hall of Fame, earn at least an undergraduate degree and make a significant contribution to the heritage of Tiger athletics. Nine members of the football program and one football team are in the Ring of Honor, while C.J. Spiller will be inducted in 2024.

FOOTBALL RING OF HONOR MEMBERS

1981 FOOTBALL TEAM

The 1981 football team was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor during the fall of 2006 in conjunction with the team's 25-year anniversary celebration of winning the national title. Every player, coach, manager and administrator associated with that team is considered in the Ring of Honor within the team concept. The Tigers had a perfect 12-0 record that season, as they defeated Nebraska by a score of 22-15 in the 1982 Orange Bowl to claim the National Championship. For more information on Clemson's 1981 squad, see page 8.

JERRY BUTLER

Jerry Butler joined teammate Steve Fuller in the Clemson Ring of Honor in 1999. The two-time All-ACC player was a first-team All-American in 1978 when he and Fuller led Clemson to a No. 6 national ranking and an 11-1 record. He had at least one reception in 36 consecutive games. In 1979, Butler was the No. 5 overall NFL draft pick by Buffalo, where he played at a Pro Bowl level for seven seasons.

FRED CONE

Fred Cone, who was inducted into the Ring of Honor in 1997, was the first player in Clemson history to rush for 2,000 yards in a career. Cone played for the Tigers from 1948-50. He is eighth on the Clemson career list for rushing touchdowns (30). Cone was a starter on two undefeated Clemson teams (1948,50), one of only two players in school history to accomplish that feat.

JEFF DAVIS

Jeff Davis, captain of the 1981 national title team, joined the Ring of Honor in 1995. He was a first-team All-American in 1981 when he led the team in tackles

(175). Davis was also named ACC MVP and defensive MVP of the Orange Bowl win over Nebraska, the game that clinched the national championship for the Tigers. He was also inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in December 2007.

DANNY FORD

Danny Ford coached Clemson to the 1981 national title at the age of 33, still the youngest coach to win one. Ford won five ACC titles and six bowl games in his 11 years as the head coach. He had a 26-10-1 record against coaches in the College Football Hall of Fame, including wins over Joe Paterno, Barry Switzer, Woody Hayes, Vince Dooley, Steve Spurrier and Tom Osborne. He finished his Tiger career with a 96-29-4 record and his 76.0 winning percentage is still among the best in ACC history. Ford was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor at the season-opening Georgia game of 2013 and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in December 2017.

STEVE FULLER

Steve Fuller was a charter member of the Ring of Honor in 1994. He is one of three football players in Clemson history to be chosen as an All-American on the field and in the classroom in the same year. Fuller was a two-time, first-team Academic All-American and a third-team All-American in 1978. He was the first Tiger to be named ACC Player-of-the-Year twice and was an NCAA Top Five Award winner in 1979, the only Tiger athlete to win the award.

FRANK HOWARD

Frank Howard was a charter member of the Ring of Honor in 1994. As head coach from 1940-69, he led Clemson to eight league championships, six bowl games and six top-25 seasons. Howard, who totaled 165 victories, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1989.

TERRY KINARD

Terry Kinard (1979-82) was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor in 2001, the same year he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. The safety from Sumter, S.C. was named national defensive player-of-the-year by CBS Sports during his senior season in 1982. Kinard was named to the All-Decade of the 1980's College Football team by USA Today and to the All-Century team by Sports Illustrated in 2000.

LEVON KIRKLAND

Levon Kirkland was a two-time All-American and three-time, First-Team All-ACC selection as an outside linebacker for the Tigers between 1988-91. He was a second-team All-American and a finalist for the Butkus Award on the 1990 team, which led the nation in total defense. He was also a first-team All-American in 1991. Kirkland was a second-round draft pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers and went on to an 11-year All-Pro career. He returned after his playing career to earn his Clemson degree and was inducted into the Clemson Ring of Honor in 2019.

BANKS McFADDEN

Banks McFadden was one of three charter members of the Clemson Ring of Honor in 1994. He was named the nation's most versatile athlete in 1939 when he was an All-American in football and basketball in the same calendar year, the only Tiger to accomplish that feat. He led the Tigers to their first bowl bid, a 6-3 victory over Boston College in the 1940 Cotton Bowl, and to the Southern Conference basketball title. He was the No. 4 overall pick of the 1940 NFL draft, tied for the highest in school history.
